Polish Students And Young Workers Stage Anti-Russian Demonstration In Warsaw

WARSAW (AP)—A wild anti-Russian demonstration was reported today from the big Polish port city of Stettin. Demonstrators marched on the Soviet consulate, smashed windows and tried to break in.

Communist authorities finally called in troops and "workers' militia" club - wielding strong- arm men—to disperse the crowd.
Official reports blamed the out- burst on "drunken hooligans." But reliable sources in Stettin said it was the outcome of a planned demonstration by students and young factory workers against events in Hungary.

The demonstration started early last night and continued until midnight. Government papers re- ported several policemen were beaten up and an undisclosed number of demonstrators arrested.

TRAVEL GROUP WILL CONSIDER TWO PROGRAMS

The board of directors of the Gettysburg Travel Council, meet- ing Monday evening at the Shetter House, voted budgetary recommen- dations to be presented this evening at a meeting of the general membership to be held at the en- gine house at 8 o'clock.

James L. Hafer, Walter B. Lane, William Ayre and Hugh Bringham presented reports of the finance, budget and program committees which will be presented to the membership this evening.

The reports showed that a max- imum budget calls for expenditure of approximately $45,000 a year.
Neither the board nor the com- mittees anticipated that the budget could be raised this year, but the group decided to present the budget and program "as what we could do if we could raise the money."

The program provides for con- sistent publicity from Gettysburg to newspapers, radio and television stations and magazines, billboards within a 70-mile radius of Gettys- burg, special programs and activities to attract tourists, publications, etc.

A smaller budget and program, higher than last year's but believed within the possibility of attainment, will also be presented at tonight's meeting.

SHORT MENU FOR LIONS NETS $79 FOR HUNGARIANS

Gettysburg Lions dined on soup, sandwiches and coffee at their weekly dinner meeting Monday evening at the Shetter House and raised $79.40 for Hungarian refugee relief. The money will be sent through a Lions International officer to Lions in Austria where it will be used to aid refugees from Hungary.

The Lions were served a bowl of vegetable soup and a barbecue sandwich, plus a cup of coffee or milk and the club paid 60 cents each for 85 meals served the club members. The Lions paid the additional 65 cents for each Lions' meal and 65 cents for each absent Lion into the fund which totaled $79.40 after some club members had chipped in extra donations.

SEEK RECRUITS FOR RESERVE

Members of Company A, 313th Infantry, local Army Reserve unit, will conduct a concentrated recruit- ment drive instead of their regular period this evening.

Normally the 72 members of the local 79th "Cross Of Lorraine" Division would meet at the American Legion Building, Baltimore St., for drill. Instead they will visit friends and acquaintances to urge them to join the local reserve unit which is seeking a membership of 100.

Mt. Sgt. Wallace Leister, reserve recruiting sergeant for the company, said, "The unit should prove partic- ularly attractive to youths 17 to 19½ years of age. By joining now they can fulfill their military obligation by spending only six months on active duty in the U.S. Army and the remainder of the time as a mem- ber of the Army Reserve, drilling one night a week in their own local- ity. A day's army pay is given for each night of drill."

The company meets each Tuesday night from 8 to 10 o'clock on the third floor of the Legion Home, and any interested youth may visit at that time to learn more of the program.

"CLOSED NOON PERIOD" AT HS AFTER HOLIDAYS

New regulations for a "closed noon period" at Gettysburg High School, effective when schools re- open after Christmas, were ap- proved Monday evening by the Gettysburg Joint School Board.

The action was taken after gen- eral approval of the new plan was given last month by the board. High School Principal G. W. Lefever attended Monday night's meeting and distributed copies of the pro- posed rules which he discussed with the directors.

After a few minor changes they were adopted in this form with no dissenting votes:

May Carry Or Buy Lunch

1. All pupils will eat in the cafeteria with the exception of those few who live nearby and can walk to their homes and return before the first bell at the end of the lunch period.

2. All pupils who plan to go home for lunch must have a school permit to leave the building signed by the parent and placed on file in the school office.

3. This permit will be for the school year and not from day to day or week to week.

4. Any unjustifiable tardiness or misuse of permit will automatically cancel it with notice to be given to the parents.

5. This noon permit is for the pupil to eat at home and not in a public place.

6. All pupils staying in the build- ing must eat in the cafeteria. They may carry their lunches or buy lunches at the cafeteria.

Prohibit Use Of Cars

7. No cars may leave the school parking areas except on written re- quest from the parent and special (Continued On Page 8)

FARMERS VOTE ON PLANTINGS FOR 3 YEARS

Adams County farmers voted to- day to determine which corn pro- gram will govern their planting for the next three years.

At six places in the county corn farmers began casting ballots at 8 o'clock this morning. The polls will be open until 7 o'clock this evening. 2,400 are eligible to vote in Adams County as part of the nation-wide referendum.

When they cast their votes the farmers choose between a soil bank program or continuation of the acreage allotment program that has been in effect for a number of years. The soil bank plan can win only if more than two-thirds of the farmers approve it. If one-third of the farmers prefer continuation of the acreage allotment plan, then it will continue in effect.

Expect Large Vote

Judging by the capacity attend- ance at a meeting held by the Adams County Farmers Association Monday evening at the Adams Elec- tric Cooperative building, rear of N. Stratton St., voting should be heav- ily anticipated.

Richard A. Penny, field representa- tive for the Agricultural Stabiliza- tion and Conservation program in this area, outlined the two pro- grams. A farmer with a 26-acre corn base would be permitted to plant about 16 acres in corn and would receive about $140 support price for his crop if the corn acreage plan continues, he said. If the soil bank plan is adopted the same farmer would be permitted to plant about 22½ acres in corn and would (Continued On Page 2)

There've Been Some Changes In 30 Years

There have been many changes in the Gettysburg school system since Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver became its head 30 years ago and Dr. Keefeauver, attending his last joint school board meeting Monday evening, pointed out one.

He told the directors that the federal income tax withheld from teachers' salaries here last year totaled more than the total school payroll in 1923-24.

The school district paid Uncle Sam $47,640 in income tax on its employes last year. The total annual payroll 30 years ago here was $47,208. That's an average of $22.39 tax per pupil, he pointed out.

And, the superintendent added, the tax bill this year will be higher because salaries are higher and there are a few more teachers.

OPERATION OF FEPC OUTLINED TO ROTARIANS

Operation of the Fair Employ- ment Practices Commission in Pen- nsylvania was outlined by its ex- ecutive director, Elliot M. Shirk, Harrisburg, at a meeting of the Rotary Club Monday evening at the YWCA.

"The old saying, 'A man con- vinced against his will is of the same opinion still' does not apply in most cases in regards to fair employment practices," Shirk said. "Most of those who are convinced by the FEPC laws become ardent supporters of the idea when they discover that it leads to more effi- cient management."

"The FEPC came into existence for various reasons. It is part of the international ferment which we have witnessed over the last decade or so and are witnessing today. The peoples of the world are seek- ing to achieve equal recognition, abandonment of second class citizenship and destruction of colonialism."

"That is the overall picture into which our FEPC fits. It came into existence because there were many people who sincerely believed that there should not be any discrimina- tion. And it came into existence be- cause there were many people run- ning for office who realized that minority groups could in a close election determine who was going to win. This is not to suggest that all politicians were cynical, without belief, just seeking votes. Many, possible most, were sincerely of the belief that minorities had as many rights as majorities. But the fact that it was also good politics helped bring about the laws."

Crippling General Strike Is Under Way In Hungary As A Protest Against Savagery

BUDAPEST (AP)—Tens of thou- sands of Hungarian workers today launched a widespread protest strike in defiance of the Russian-imposed government of Premier Janos Kadar.

Transportation in Budapest was badly crippled, but the work stop- page did not appear to be 100 per cent effective. Some business ac- tivity apparently was continuing under the pressure of guns of the Hungarian police and Soviet troops. But many workers did not re- port to their factories or sat idle when they reached their posts.

The call to strike for 48 hours beginning last midnight was is- sued by the Budapest Central Workers' Council to protest the "anti-peoples, antiworkers activi- ties" of the government.

Order Partial Blackout

It was not immediately known how effective the strike appeal had proved in the provinces, al- though there were reports that the stoppages had started yesterday in some outlying towns.

The government again clamped down with a partial blackout on outside the country.

The Kadar government replied to the general strike call with new repressive measures, including a decree of martial law, the arrests of some worker leaders and a de- cree dissolving the Central Work- ers' Council and its regional bod- ies.

Strike Is Spreading

Refugees crossing into Austria from Hungary said the strike ap- peared to be spreading over the country despite Kadar's martial law decree and possible Soviet re- pressals.

Hungarians who left Budapest by train Monday said workers all along the route reported they had been alerted to the strike appeal.

Austrian railway workers return- ing from the Hungarian bor- der station of Hegyeshalom re- ported that work in that town was at a complete standstill. The stationmaster at Nickelsdorf said he also had been told that a train scheduled to arrive there from Hungary would not be running.

JOINT BOARD GETS IN LINE FOR PA. FUNDS

Informed that there are now no federal funds to help pay for new school sites, the Gettysburg Joint School Board took action Monday evening at its December meeting at the high school building to get in line for state funds for reum- bursement for rental on the build- ing expected to be erected on land being purchased from the county commissioners.

Court approval of the land trans- fer will be sought in Adams County Court next Monday morning.

A resolution adopted on a 22 to 3 vote Monday evening asks state approval of the new grade school project and puts the joint district in line for a share of state funds expected to be made available by the next legislature. Until such funds are provided, the joint school district will be financing the project alone.

Size Not Determined

Attorney John A. MacPhail re- ported to the board Monday that the agreement of sale for the school site north of East Broadway and east of the Harrisburg Rd. has been executed and the title to the property can be transferred to the school district any time after court approval is secured next week. The purchase price is $45,000.

If the school district fails to erect a building on the land in five years, or drops its buildings plans before that time, the county holds an option to re-purchase the land at the same $45,000 figure.

Discussion Monday evening in- dicated there may be some de- cisions ahead for the board on the size of the new building. Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver, who retires this month as superintendent of schools, said the size of the new building "would imply the closing of Lin- coln School" where playground facilities are "inadequate" and the state has called the building "out- dated."

Sees Higher Costs

If an 18-room building were erected and the 10-unit Lincoln school were closed, there would be enough pupils next fall to fill about 15 rooms of that building. Dr. Keefeauver suggested that it might be unwise to consider less than 18 rooms in the new struc- ture. No decision has been made on closing Lincoln School.

He pointed out that interest rates on the bonds to be sold to finance the new building will be higher than the last issues here and build- ing costs also may be expected to be higher now than for the Kee- fauver school.

Describes "Dilemma"

He added that the present annual rental bill for buildings already erected in this joint district is $108- 000. He estimated that the proposed building on the county land might add another $45,000 to that yearly total. "The school district faces a dilemma," he said. "We must have the building but it's going to be costly and although there's no as- surance now of state help on rentals, if we delay action it might be as much as four or five years before we could get in line for state aid."

Joint School Board Also Unanimously Adopted A Resolution Opposing The Proposal To Establish Regional Service Areas To Replace The Present County-Unit System In Pennsylvania.

The action is similar to that taken by the county school director's convention at Littlestown last Fri- day.

The board voted to hold the (Continued On Page 8)

Promise To Remedy
Budapest Cutoff

WASHINGTON (AP)—A U.S. protest to Hungary against a new cutoff of communications with the American legation at Budapest has brought a reply that things should be back to normal today. Tibor Zador, first secretary of the Hungarian legation here, told newsmen after receiving the protest late yesterday that he was "99 per cent certain that by tomorrow everything will be all right."

It was the second time since the Oct. 29 Hungarian revolt that communications were severed between the Budapest legation and Washington. A State Department note handed to Zador said the second interruption began Sunday and continued for more than 24 hours.

Deliver Their Greetings — And
Tips On Helping With Xmas Mail

Postmaster Lawrence E. Oyler and the five rural carriers out of the Gettysburg post office are delivering Christmas greetings to some 2,150 families served along the rural routes and combining their good wishes with instructions for facilitating the handling of the rush of Christmas mail.

The message, printed in green on white paper, closes with the wish for a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and includes these facts about helping with the Christmas mail:

Many of our patrons have asked how they could be of assistance during the busy Christmas season. Believing that you would like to help, we offer the following suggestions:

1. Buy your stamps in advance and place them on your cards and letters before putting them in the box for collection. Unsealed cards without writing, other than your name, may be mailed for 2c but they cannot be forwarded or returned to you if undeliverable as addressed. Those bearing the letter rate, 3c, can be forwarded or returned if undeliverable, provided they bear your return address. All sealed cards and those containing writing must bear the letter rate of postage. Your carrier has a supply of stamps and you may buy them from him. Please do not ask him to place the stamps on your cards or letters.

2. You can further assist by separating your cards for local and out-of-town delivery. When your cards are ready to be mailed, with stamps affixed, tie them in bundles with all addresses faced the same way and with the stamps in the upper right corner. Forms 1500-A and 1500-B are supplied without charge for convenience in labeling bundles for local and out-of-town delivery. Your carrier will be glad to furnish you with the desired quantity or, if these forms are not available, you may use slips of paper on which you have written, "All for Local Delivery" or "All for Out-of-Town Delivery."

3. If your packages are not properly wrapped and addressed they may not reach their destination, may be damaged in transit, or may be delayed in delivery. Select a sturdy container and wrap your packages in good heavy paper and tie with cord or strong twine. Write or print the address on one side only and place your return address in the upper left hand corner. Avoid the use of oiled or waxed paper for the outside wrapper. It is a good idea to place a card inside the parcel containing your name and address, just in case the outside wrapper is torn off. If you desire to enclose a letter in the package, be sure to mark on the wrapper, "First class mail enclosed" and pay the postage for the letter in addition to the postage for the package. Valuable packages should be insured. "Do not open until Christmas" or a similar notation may be placed on the outside of the package. Should snow become a problem, please keep the approach to your mail box clear of snow and other obstructions. If the road by your box can not be cleared you are privileged to relocate the box temporarily in order that your mail can be delivered.

"Service With A Smile"
If you expect to receive large parcels it would assist in making delivery if you would place a written notice in the box advising the carrier whether the parcels are to be left outside the box, whether you will meet him to accept them, or whether you will call for them at the post office.

If you have any further questions regarding the proper preparation of Christmas mail, please ask your carrier or stop in at the post office. We, your postal employees, want to give you and all of our citizens of this vicinity the very best postal service we can. We strive to live up to the time honored tradition of "Service with a Smile." We will welcome your suggestions that will help us provide you with a better service.

Please mail your cards and packages early.

SOME STOCKS LOSE
NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices slid off in fairly active early trading today.

Except for aircrafts, pivotal issues showed losses from fractions to around a point.

Brokers said the market was apparently continuing its late decline of yesterday on profit-taking after the huge rise of the previous week. In addition, treasury borrowing costs on 91-day bills rose to still another 23-year high, a further reminder of the tight money situation.

SOME STOCKS LOSE

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices slid off in fairly active early trading today.

Except for Alcoa's pivotal issues showed losses from fractions to around a point.

Brokers said the market was apparently continuing its late decline of yesterday on profit-taking after the huge rise of the previous week. In addition, treasury borrowing costs on 91-day bills rose to still another 23-year high, a further reminder of the tight money situation.

Promise To Remedy
Budapest Cutoff

WASHINGTON (AP)—A U.S. protest to Hungary against a new cutoff of communications with the American legation at Budapest has brought a reply that things should be back to normal today.

Tibor Zador, first secretary of the Hungarian legation here, told newsmen after receiving the protest late yesterday that he was "99 per cent certain that by tomorrow everything will be all right."

It was the second time since the Oct. 29 Hungarian revolt that communications were severed between the Budapest legation and Washington. A State Department note handed to Zador said the second interruption began Sunday and continued for more than 24 hours.

Postmaster And Rural Carriers
Deliver Their Greetings — And
Tips On Helping With Xmas Mail

Postmaster Lawrence E. Oyler and the five rural carriers of the Gettysburg post office are delivering Christmas greetings to some 2,150 families served along the rural routes and combining their good wishes with instructions for facilitating the handling of the rush of Christmas mailing.

The message, printed in green on white paper, closes with the wish for a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and includes these facts about helping with the Christmas mail:

Many of our patrons have asked how they could be of assistance during the busy Christmas season. Believing that you would like to help, we offer the following suggestions:

1. Buy your stamps in advance and place them on your cards and letters before putting them in the box for collection. Unsealed cards without writing, other than your name, may be mailed for 2c but they cannot be forwarded or returned to you if undeliverable as addressed. Those bearing the letter rate, 3c, can be forwarded or returned if undeliverable, provided they bear your return address. All sealed cards and those containing writing must bear the letter rate of postage. Your carrier has a supply of stamps and you may buy them from him. Please do not ask him to place the stamps on your cards or letters.

2. You can further assist by separating your cards for local and out-of-town delivery. When your cards are ready to be mailed, with stamps affixed, tie them in bundles with all addresses faced the same way and with the stamps in the upper right corner. Forms 1500-A and 1500-B are supplied without charge for convenience in labeling bundles for local and out-of-town delivery. Your carrier will be glad to furnish you with the desired quantity or, if these forms are not available, you may use slips of paper on which you have written, "All for Local Delivery" or "All for Out-of-Town Delivery."

3. If your packages are not properly wrapped and addressed they may not reach their destination, may be damaged in transit, or may be delayed in delivery. Select a sturdy container and wrap your packages in good heavy paper and tie with cord or strong twine. Write or print the address on one side only and place your return address in the upper left hand corner. Avoid the use of oiled or waxed paper for the outside wrapper. It is a good idea to place a card inside the parcel containing your name and address, just in case the outside wrapper is torn off. If you desire to enclose a letter in the package, be sure to mark on the wrapper, "First class mail enclosed" and pay the postage for the letter in addition to the postage for the package. Valuable packages should be insured. "Do not open until Christmas" or a similar notation may be placed on the outside of the package.

Should snow become a problem, please keep the approach to your mail box clear of snow and other obstructions. If the road by your box can not be cleared you are privileged to relocate the box temporarily in order that your mail can be delivered.

"Service With A Smile"

If you expect to receive large parcels it would assist in making delivery if you would place a written notice in the box advising the carrier whether the parcels are to be left outside the box, whether you will meet him to accept them, or whether you will call for them at the post office.

If you have any further questions regarding the proper preparation of Christmas mail, please ask your carrier or stop in at the post office. We, your postal employees, want to give you and all of our citizens of this vicinity the very best postal service we can. We strive to live up to the time honored tradition of "Service with a Smile." We will welcome your suggestions that will help us provide you with a better service.

Please mail your cards and packages early.

A recreation meeting of the Senior High Youth Fellowship of Redeemer's Church was held on Sunday evening in the church social hall. A session of group games followed the brief worship period. The Fellowship will meet again next Sunday at 6:15 p.m.

Home Is Sold

Mrs. and Mrs. Wilbur Hollenshead have sold their home property on the edge of town, on the Taneytown Rd., to Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wisner, Owings Mills, Md. Possession will be given in early spring. The sale was made through A. C. Garland, Littlestown realtor.

The Holy Name Society of St. Aloysius Catholic Church held its monthly meeting on Sunday evening, in the parish hall, with President John R. Rudisill Sr. presiding. Plans were discussed for the pre-Christmas public party on Monday, December 17, 8 p.m. All turkeys will be given as prizes. Details will be announced later.

It was decided that those Holy Name men who attend a weekend retreat each summer will pay $1 monthly toward the retreat expenses, so that when the designated weekend arrives, the cost will have been collected in monthly payments. The retreat committee is composed of Thomas French, Paul E. Altoff and Z. W. Sanders. A note of thanks was read from Robert Rexroth, a religious brother in Indiana. Conrad C. Hull, secretary, reported. The Holy Name Society will meet again on Sunday, January 13.

The Rev. Mr. Koons discussed the topic "A Christian Is Dependable" at the meeting of the Christ Church Christian Endeavor Society on Sunday evening. Donald Wolfe was leader and the following program was presented: Hymns, "My Mother's Bible" and "The First Noel," accompanied by Joan E. Bair; Scripture, Erma Arentz; cornet duet, Donald Berwager and Robert Markle; carol, "Joy To The World;" prayer, Richard Berwager; accordion solo, George D. Koons; special music by Evelyn, Nancy and Ruth Koons; discussion of the topic by Rev. Mr. Koons. Robert C. Markle, president, conducted the business period. Plans were discussed for the Society to present its annual Christmas program at the Adams County Home, Gettysburg, next Sunday at 2 p.m. The meeting closed with the carol, "Silent Night," and the Lord's Prayer and C. E. benediction were repeated in unison.

League Plans Party

The Luther League of St. John's Church will hold a Christmas party and covered dish supper on Sunday, Dec. 16, at 6 p.m., in the church social hall. Gifts will be exchanged. Committees for the affair include: Arrangements, Richard Mackley, Francis Barnes, Joyce Barnes and John Groff; program, Susan Weaver, Bonita Storm, Kathy Miller and Brenda Hollinger. The topic for the evening will be discussed by Melinda Karns. Following the party, the group will go caroling.

Kathy Miller was pianist for the meeting of the Luther League on Sunday evening. There was prayer in unison. Joyce Barnes read the Scripture and discussed the topic,

Bullets Host W. Maryland
Wednesday; GHS Opens On Friday With Delone High

The home attractions for the Gettysburg College cagers and the opening contest for the Gettysburg High dribblers highlight the week's athletic program.

Bob Davies' Bullets, winless after four games, tangle with Western Maryland here Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, and Saturday night will be host to Hofstra. There will be no preliminary Wednesday but on Saturday the bullet froth clash with the Hofstra yearlings.

The game with Western Maryland offers the college varsity a golden opportunity to crash into the win column. Dick Clower, new Terror cage mentor, lost his scoring ace of last year, Hugh McIntyre, via graduation but has only four lettermen remaining. They include Bill Spahr, 6-3, Tom Ruggin 6-1, Denny Harmon 5-11 and Harry Lambert 5-11.

Up from last year's jayvees are Sloan Stewart 6-2, Bob Passerello 6-0 and Joel Bailey 6-3. Promising freshmen include Dave Truitt 5-11, John Long 6-0, Bill Sanders 6-4, Jack Fringer 6-2, Bob Cole 6-0, Ross Selby 6-1, and Bob Johnson 6-2.

Gettysburg High will open its 1956-57 campaign by hosting Delone Catholic Friday night. The jayvee teams meet at 6:45.

Five Games Tonight
Five scholastic games are on tonight's program. Littlestown (0-2); plays at Delone (1-0); James Buchanan at Biglerville (0-3); East Berlin (1-3) is at Manchester; Fairfield (0-2) plays at St. Thomas and New Oxford (1-2) goes to Spring Grove.

Wednesday's lone game is the Red Lion-Littlestown tilt at Littlestown. Two Biglerville High teams are listed for action Thursday. The basketballers play at Scotland while the Canner wrestlers open at Hanover.

In addition to the Delone-Gettysburg game Friday night, other school affairs include Quincy boys and girls at York Springs, East Berlin at North Carroll Fairfield boys and girls at Emmitsburg.

Hofstra At Mount
Mt. St. Mary's has but one game scheduled this week, that with Hofstra at Emmitsburg Friday evening. There will be no preliminary and the lone game will start at 8:30. The Mountaineers are winless in three games.

Gene Haas' Gettysburg College matmen open their season by meeting Hofstra here Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

SAYS REDS 'TRY
HARD' TO WIN

YORK, Pa. (AP) — Bob Hoffman admitted today that Russian athletes "try hard" to win in Olympic competition.

But the coach of America's Olympic weight lifting team was quick to add that Russian athletes don't give it "the old college try" but instead give it "the old business try."

Hoffman, who returned to his York County home last Saturday from the Olympic Games at Melbourne, criticized the Russian "amateur athletes" as "nothing more than a state employee."

"They take these athletes away to camps for months at a time and train them hard every possible minute of the day," Hoffman said, adding:

Have Stamina
"This gives them stamina and endurance such as can't be built up by American athletes who have to share their time among school work and practice."

Hoffman raised quite a furor several weeks ago, when, before weight-lifting competition began, he charged publicly that the Weightlifting Jury of Appeals was influenced by Russia.

He said at the time that his team would make a good showing if the jury didn't "give us a raw deal."

"My statement paid off because we got a fair shake in the weightlifting," Hoffman said. "But in some other sports, such as swim-

ST. LOUIS BEATS
KENTUCKIANS;
ALCORN HAS 24

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Kansas has a myth playing center, Oklahoma A&M already has lost at home and Nebraska has beaten three Big Ten teams in three tries. But everything's normal in college basketball after all—Eddie Hickey and his St. Louis Billikens have knocked off Adolph Rupp's Kennickians.

Hickey has a penchant for hitting the bluegrass baron like sour-mash on an empty stomach, and he did it again last night. Hours after the Wildcats had been granted the No. 3 spot in the first Associated Press poll of the season, the unranked, once-beaten Bills up and bopped 'em 71-70.

Harold Alcorn of the Billikens, a senior guard, outscored Kentucky 12-9 all by himself in one five-minute spurt midway through the final half and then put it away with two foul shots in the closing minutes. He finished with 24 points.

Second Ten Busy
Since coming to St. Louis, Hickey has beaten the Rupp four out of seven.

Kentucky was the only member of the newly elected top 10 in action last night, although three teams in the second 10 were at it. Western Kentucky (No. 12) made it 3-0 with a 95-74 breeze past New Mexico A & M; Oklahoma A & M (No. 19), after dropping a home game to Washington, made it 4-1 with a comeback, 59-50, despite two Arkansas, and Seattle (No. 20) gained 4-1 standing with a 47-44 job on Santa Clara.

In conference play, Maryland gained a tie for the Atlantic Coast lead with Duke by defeating Wake Forest 59-53.

Nebraska Wins
Nebraska kept the heat on the Big Ten by defeating winless Wisconsin 53-51 as Gary Remers and Don Smith hit two foul shots apiece to break a 49-all tie with 3:25 left.

Pennsylvania results: Juniata 89, Shippensburg Teachers 63; Mansfield Teachers 63, Lycoming 53; Lebanon Valley 74, Albright 63; Rider 79, Susquehanna 64; Indiana 73, Butler 68; Duquesne 73, St. Francis (Pa.) 61; Wilkes 83, Moravian 82; Bethany (W.Va.) 70, Waynesburg 62; West Chester Teachers 49, Millersville 43.

KANSAS ON TOP
IN 1ST AP POLL
ON BASKETBALL

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ

Kansas, spearheaded by seven-foot wild (The St. Louis) Chamberlain, tops the collegiate rankings in the first Associated Press basketball poll of the season.

The heralded sophomore averaged 45.5 points in the Jayhawkers' two victories at home over Northwestern and Marquette. The sports writers and sportscasters seemed so impressed by Chamberlain's varsity debut that 58 of the 108 participating in the balloting picked Kansas as No. 1.

Kansas accumulated 896 points with the standings figured on the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second etc. San Francisco, No. 1 team in the final AP poll the past two seasons, is runner-up with 675 points, including 18 firsts.

Kentucky, displaying another sophomore sensation in Johnny Cox, rolled up three straight victories to rank third in the listings with 514 points.

Louisville Fourth
Louisville, National Invitational Tourney winner last March, is fourth with 403 points, two more than Southern Methodist, with 401.

Rounding out the top 10 are North Carolina (No. 6), Illinois (No. 7), North Carolina State (No. 8), Alabama (No. 9) and Kansas (No. 10).

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — A couple of ardent golfers — President Eisenhower and Canada's Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent — met here today for a good neighborly match.

The 74-year-old prime minister was scheduled to arrive from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where he has been vacationing. After golfing with the President he will fly on to his home at Ottawa.

The President has been mixing work and vacation here at the Augusta National Golf Club since Nov. 26. Present indications are he will return to Washington Thursday.

BOB FELLER TO TAKE JOB IN FRONT OFFICE

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Feller of the Van Meter, Iowa, ploughboy who grew up to become the major league strikeout king and one of baseball's greatest of all pitchers, has decided to retire from active service after 21 years with the Cleveland Indians.

A friend of Feller's advised The Associated Press today that the former fireballing right-hander, who turned 38 last month, had told him he had just about made up his mind to retire from the player ranks and accept an offer of a job in the Indians' front office.

Feller is now attending a meeting in New Orleans of the Baseball Players Association of which he is president. He is expected to make his retirement announcement within a week or 10 days.

"Crazy To Hang On"
Bob had his mind pretty well made up when I talked to him," Feller's friend declared. "At first he was determined to continue on the active list, if not with the Indians then with another big league club. Now I believe he is convinced he would be crazy to hang on."

Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg, who had offered the front office job to Feller, said he had received no word from the former Indian ace.

I certainly hope it's true, Greenberg declared.

Cleveland's Elik
Holds Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Elik Chelengier in the race for American Hockey League scoring honor, slipped a bit during the past week, but the Cleveland Baron looked to have a four point edge in a runner-up Paul Lavigne of Providence.

Elik accounted for four of his 41 to raise his league leading total to 40 points, including 23 goals. AHL high in that department Lavigne moved past Cleveland's Fred Glover into second place with 36 points. Glover is a point back.

Cleveland's Jimmy Moore retained his leadership in assists with 25 and Larry Zeidel of Erie, who continued to spend the most time in the penalty box. He has drawn 80 minutes for infractions. Providence goalie Johnny Bowler is the leading netminder, allowing a low of 2.53 goals per game.

These were the words of Chambersburg Public Opinion:

"We have a little speed and we have a little speed. We'll use both this year."

These were the words of Chambersburg High School varsity basketball coach Earl W. Schlichter as he optimistically glanced over the 15-man squad that will wear the Blue and White through the 1957 South Penn Conference season.

Schlichter was given cause to cheer by the graduation loss last time of two kids good enough for election to the All-Conference first team in 1956 Sam Butz, number two with 267 points and Sid Wells, 10th in scoring with a 196 total, have moved on to collegiate circles while Schlichter remains for his 16th season as Chambersburg mentor.

All three lose by the parting of ways but Schlichter's setback is double—he has two gigantic holes to fill.

Over Six Feet
The absence of Butz Wells and six lesser lights on last year's faithful bright team may be well compensated for in 1956-57 by a six-foot-plus height average on the starting five. The quintet presently regarded as Schlichter's first string ranges six-feet or over, to the man.

Play is centered around 6-3 Irvin Ransom, a Junior and a letter winner last year. The lettermen forwards are Herb Faust, 6-1, who received an All-Conference honorable mention last year and Richard Patterson, second tallest man on the team at 6-2. The guards, Tom Lanch 6-1, and Ebel Leisher, 6', have also won varsity letters. Three of these—Ransom, Faust and Leisher—have had the conditioning advantage of a season of varsity football.

Reserves Also Tall
Schlichter has pointed out the possibility of any of a number of others breaking into the starting lineup. The remaining list of ten players includes four six-footers: James Mackling, 6-2, Mike Donahue, 6 and Ronald Youkavitch, 6', all up from last year's junior varsity. Hugh Crittenden, 6', has made the jump from last season's junior high team after leaving the junior high conference in scoring.

Other candidates are Edward Salter, Darrell Stoops, James Strle and Galen Warren, all 5-10 and all JV graduates, Benjamin Hair, 5-9, and Rodney Cook, 5-7. Cook, a Senior, has had some previous varsity experience.

Out Of The Past

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Farewell To Bachelorhood And Politics: "To be, or not to be (a Benedict) is the question," which not even the closest friends of the Hon. Peter "Harry" Strubinger ever dreamed of having been entertained for a moment by the "Sage of Berwick."

Nevertheless, the secret is out, and it is strongly alleged that Adams County's political leader for a score of years, is about to forsake the "strenuous life" for one of domestic tranquility.

A pre-nuptial event of great significance was held at the Hon. Piers' well-known hostelry, at the Hotel Hanover, between the night of Monday and the dawn of Tuesday, present week. The occasion was termed a "Bachelor Dinner," during the progress of which the guests were informed of the sudden "change of heart" by their host.

Covers for 28 persons were placed on the festive board, at the head of which sat the bachelor host, and at the other end "Col." Thomas J. O'Neill sat on the lid (of an ice box).

As the grey streaks of dawn were breaking through the leaden sky, the guests arose and with breakers poised in the air all silently drank to the health of the bride-to-be. Mr. Strubinger, we have been informed, will wed a Philadelphia lady next week and with his bride will spend two months in a tour of the South.

Dr. Foreman Found Dead In Buggy: Dr. E. K. Foreman, of Littlestown, one of Adams county's most prominent physicians, was found dead in his buggy Monday afternoon near Two Taverns.

Dr. Foreman was returning from a professional visit and stopped for a cigar at Thad. O. Collins', Two Taverns. Dr. Foreman was one of the oldest physicians in the county, being 60 years of age, and had a large practice. He was an estimable gentleman and was widely known.

Damaged By Fire: The State Road school house caught fire near the roof last Tuesday morning and several rafters and some of the roof was destroyed before the flames were put out by the teacher, J. L. Garretson, and the pupils. The damage amounted to about $25.

Today's Talk

THE JOY OF FREEDOM
All the free countries, and many others, have been shocked to their depths at the savage attack that has left so much in Hungary a mass of ruins, with a loss of life that is one of the tragedies of history. I am glad that America's arms have been open to receive those who have been lucky enough to reach these shores. I have studied the photos of those who have landed and noted the look of joy, as well as of wonder, to be in free America.

What an amazing thing is this freedom which all Americans enjoy as an inheritance! What gift could be so great? Take away freedom from an individual, and what have you? A mere skeleton of hope! Freedom is an essential to progress, be it that of a nation or individual. Without it there would be little or no incentive, like existing in a slave state.

Just think what this thing of free expression means! In America a person can express his sincere opinions — and isn't shot for doing so! What a treasure is this thing of freedom! Freedom of expression, a free press, freedom to worship as one chooses, freedom to travel the earth without interference, save in one or two spots.

There is no limit to opportunity in America. Many an immigrant has come to this western shore, landing with hardly more than enough to pay for a few meals, but who has later risen to great success and widespread influence. What a thrill these new comers to America must experience as they look for the first time upon that noble statue at the head of New York harbor — known all over the world as the Statue of Liberty.

There is no gift in all this world so precious as that of freedom. When threatened it becomes more important than life itself, as recently those Hungarians have demonstrated. May this freedom forever enlighten the world!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Happy Habit"

Just Folks

BOY

He went whistling down the street
Just like any boy you'd meet.
Earth is still a wonder place,
There's a grin upon his face,
And his youthful jaunty air
Shows he's never known a care.

He has never suffered grief,
Never faltered in belief,
Every one who passes by
Is perfection to his eye.
If a fight he's ever had
It was with another lad.

Down the years as he shall grow
Disappointments he will know,
And it may be he will meet,
With both failure and defeat;
But, if some man is his friend,
He will brave them to the end.

Santa and the SECRET ROOM

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

By LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE
(For P.M., Dec. 11; A.M., Dec. 12)
Synopsis: We spent all day working in Santa Land and loading Santa's sleigh. Then we took off for home and the secret room.

CHAPTER SEVEN THE SECRET ROOM

The night was half gone when Santa's reindeer began slowly descending from the sky.

"Are we there? Are we there?" asked the princess. There was a tremble in her voice.

"We must be," said Santa. "The reindeer are always right. All I have to do is tell them where I wish to go and they always get me there."

We peered over the sides of the sleigh. There was nothing to be seen except the silent snow far below. Now the reindeer began to circle and suddenly we saw a monstrous shadow on the snow.

"Is that it?" asked Santa. "Is that the palace?"

"Y-yes," faltered the princess. "I guess it is. But I've never seen it so dark and fearful! There are no lights at the guard posts and none in the yards."

"Good," said Santa. "No one can see us." He pulled at the reins. With scarcely a sound the reindeer brought the sleigh to a stop between turrets and chimneys on the roof of the palace.

"Now which chimney would lead to the room we're after?" wondered Santa.

"I know," said Princess Anne. The room is on the first floor of the crooked tower. There — there's the tower and the chimney!"

I looked where she pointed. I saw a crooked tower at the corner of the palace. Santa took our hands and helped us across to the tower chimney.

"I'll lead the way," he whispered. "But first I'll tell you a secret known to no man on earth. It's my magic chimney climbing word. Remember it now. It's PETRONENYMO."

With that, he climbed into the chimney and dropped out of sight. The princess and I were scared to follow but we were scared even more to stay behind. We went first into that black and spooky hole.

At first we just stuck there and never moved at all and I thought we were trapped forever. Then I remembered and I gasped, PETRONENYMO.

Instantly we floated gently down and a moment later Santa had our hands and we were out of the chimney and in the secret room. The princess' teeth chattered and my knees felt like they had come undone. But Santa boldly pulled out a candle, lit it and held it aloft.

I don't know what awful things I had expected to see in this mysterious room but what I saw was a bunch of statues. Behind the statues were shelves loaded with bottles of strange colored liquids, powders and pills. On the floor books were piled in heaps.

"Well," said Santa. "There doesn't seem to be anything so strange here. The king comes here to read and admire his statues and take medicine for some ailment."

I felt my fears ease away. It had all been the princess' imagination. I thought. She had run away from nothing.

I turned to tell her so. She was will be placed upon voluntary

1. For the population as a whole — a limitation of 10 million roentgens of man-made radiation — delivered to the reproductive organs — for every one million persons in the population from conception up to age 30.

That would mean an average limit of 10 per person. But Taylor stressed that individuals who might receive an amount in excess of that would not necessarily be exposed to any "significant" genetic hazard. Moreover, he said, not all radiation received by the body necessarily goes to the reproductive system — for example, in an X-ray examination of the teeth, less than one thousandth of the radiation used reaches the reproductive organs.

He added that the dose delivered to the reproductive organs may range from none at all for a few types of radiation exposure to virtually 100 per cent for some other types.

standing before a statue of a man. Her eyes were fastened on the eyes of the statue and she was all a tremble in her arms and legs.

Suddenly she fell to the floor in a faint.

Santa leaned over her and smoothed her hair. "It's all right," he murmured. "Everything's all right, you see. There's nothing to fear."

At last she opened her eyes. They were filled with awful terror and she whispered, "You're wrong. There is something more dreadful here than anything I imagined."

Santa started to speak but at that very moment we heard footsteps in the hall and the sound of a scratching at the door.

ASKS VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE IN RACIAL TROUBLE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell has signaled for "voluntary compliance" as a first step toward ending racial segregation in local transportation.

The attorney general in effect called on transportation companies generally to go along with a Supreme Court decision saying forced separation of white and Negro passengers on intrastate buses and trains violates rights guaranteed by the Constitution.

The 33 U. S. district attorneys from 14 Southern and border states maintaining segregation laws for transportation were called here yesterday to confer with Brownell on ways to secure observance of the Supreme Court's Nov. 13 mandate.

"Most appropriate" The attorney general said in a statement after the conference that he and the prosecutors "considered at length those measures most appropriate." He added:

"In the application of the Constitution to segregation on all common carriers primary emphasis will be placed upon voluntary compliance with the law as enunciated by the Supreme Court of the United States.

"Upon request, conferences with common carriers to define their legal rights and responsibilities will be held."

Brownell declined to say what other steps the federal government may take if the call for voluntary compliance does not bring about desegregation.

'57 Budget Approved By French Assembly

PARIS (AP) — Premier Guy Mollet's deficit budget for 1957 has been approved by six separate ballots in the French National Assembly.

In its final ballot last night, the Assembly approved 215-184 the record 4½-trillion-franc ($12,857,166,000) budget for metropolitan France. An additional 310 billion francs ($885,715,880) probably will be approved for Algeria and military operations against the nationalist rebellion in that North African area.

It is estimated that the total will mean a deficit of nearly 683 billion francs ($2,828,567,000).

The Socialist Premier made all six ballots votes of confidence in his government.

SET UP LIMITS ON EXPOSURE TO RADIATION

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recommendations for what would be the first radiation exposure limits ever set up for the population as a whole have been drafted by a quasiofficial watchdog committee.

The same group, the National Committee on Radiation Protection, has also drafted recommendations for what would amount to new and sharply reduced limits on radiation exposure for the nation's half million workers in atomic and similar plants.

This was reported Monday by Dr. Lauriston S. Taylor, chairman of the committee and a National Bureau of Standards scientist, in a report prepared for delivery later this week to a meeting of the American Nuclear Society. He amplified in an interview.

Limits Of "Acceptable Risk"
Taylor said the intent of both actions is to assure that exposure to radiation from all sources — including atomic bomb fall-out, products of atomic energy plants, and medical and dental uses of X-rays — does not go beyond a point of "acceptable risk" from the genetic or hereditary standpoint.

The committee he heads is sponsored by the Bureau of Standards. It is made up of representatives of the Atomic Energy Commission, the Public Health Service, American Medical Assn. and other professional and industry groups. It has no regulatory power but its recommendations in the past have been widely followed.

The unit by which radiation is measured is the roentgen. Taylor said the new recommendations are:

1. For the population as a whole — a limitation of 10 million roentgens of man-made radiation — delivered to the reproductive organs — for every one million persons in the population from conception up to age 30.

That would mean an average limit of 10 per person. But Taylor stressed that individuals who might receive an amount in excess of that would not necessarily be exposed to any "significant" genetic hazard. Moreover, he said, not all radiation received by the body necessarily goes to the reproductive system — for example, in an X-ray examination of the teeth, less than one thousandth of the radiation used reaches the reproductive organs.

For Atomic Workers
He added that the dose delivered to the reproductive organs may range from none at all for a few types of radiation exposure to virtually 100 per cent for some other types.

Search parties have been unable to retrieve any portion of the wreckage. The Coast Guard said there is no menace to navigation through the channel.

other radiation-producing plants — a formula under which at no age would the total accumulated radiation dose to the reproductive organs be allowed to exceed the person's age, minus 18 multiplied by 5. Age 18 is the minimum for starting work in such plants. Under the formula, for example, a worker would be allowed no more than 60 roentgens up to age 30.

Out Of The Past

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Farewell To Bachelorhood
Politics: "To be, or not to be," which not even the closest friends of the Hon. Peter "Harry" Strubinger ever dreamed of having been entertained for a moment by the "Sage of Berwick."

Nevertheless, the secret is out, and it is strongly alleged that Adams County's political leader, for a score of years, is about to forsake the "strenuous life" for one of domestic tranquility.

A pre-nuptial event of great significance was held at the Hon. P. L. Strubinger's home, at the Hotel Hanover, between the night of Monday and the dawn of Tuesday, present week. The occasion was termed a "Bachelor Dinner," during the progress of which the guests were informed of the sudden "change of heart" by their host.

Covers for 38 persons were placed on the festive board, at the head of which sat the bachelor host, and at the other end "Col." Thomas J. O'Neill sat on the lid (of an ice box).

As the grey streaks of dawn were breaking through the leaden sky, the guests arose and with breakers poised in the air all silently drank to the health of the bride-to-be. Mr. Strubinger, we have been informed, will wed a Philadelphia lady next week and with his bride will spend two months in a tour of the South.

Today's Talk

THE JOY OF FREEDOM
All the free countries, and many others, have been snuck to their depths at the savage attack that has left so much in Hungary a mass of ruins, with a loss of life that is one of the tragedies of history. I am glad that America's arms have been open to receive those who have been lucky enough to reach these shores. I have studied the photos of those who have landed and noted the look of joy, as well as of wonder, to be in free America.

What an amazing thing is this freedom which all Americans enjoy as an inheritance! What gift could be so great? Take away freedom from an individual, and what have you? A mere skeleton of hope! Freedom is an essential to progress, be it that of a nation or individual. Without it there would be little or no incentive, like existing in a slave state.

Just think what this thing of free expression means! In America a person can express his sincere opinions — and isn't shot for doing so! What a treasure is this thing of freedom! Freedom of expression, a free press, freedom to worship as one chooses, freedom to travel the earth without interference, save in one or two spots.

There is no limit to opportunity in America. Many an immigrant has come to this western shore, landing with hardly more than enough to pay for a few meals, but who has later risen to great success and widespread influence. What a thrill these new comers to America must experience as they look for the first time upon that noble statue at the head of New York harbor — known all over the world as the Statue of Liberty.

There is no gift in all this world so precious as that of freedom. When threatened it becomes more important than life itself, as recently those Hungarians have demonstrated. May this freedom forever enlighten the world!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Happy Habit." Produced, 1956, by the George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

BOY
He went whistling down the street
Just like any boy you'd meet.
Earth is still a wonder place,
There's a grin upon his face,
And his youthful jaunty air
Shows he's never known a care.

He has never suffered grief,
Never faltered in belief,
Every one who passes by
Is in perfect to his eye.
If a fight he's ever had
It was with another lad.

Down the years as he shall grow
Disappointments he will know,
And it may be he will meet,
With both failure and defeat,
But, if some man is his friend,
He will brave them to the end.

Santa and the SECRET ROOM

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

By LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE
(For PMs, Dec. 11; AMs, Dec. 12)
Synopsis: We spent all day working in Santa Land and loading Santa's sleigh. Then we took off for home and the secret room.

CHAPTER SEVEN
THE SECRET ROOM
The night was half gone when Santa's reindeer began slowly descending from the sky.
"Are we there? Are we there?" asked the princess. There was a tremble in her voice.
"We must be," said Santa. "The reindeer are always right. All I have to do is tell them where I wish to go and they always get me there."
We peered over the sides of the sleigh. There was nothing to be seen except the silent snow far below. Now the reindeer began to circle and suddenly we saw a monstrous shadow on the snow.
"Is that it?" asked Santa. "Is that the palace?"
"Y-yes," faltered the princess. "I guess it is. But I've never seen it so dark and fearful! There are no lights at the guard posts and none in the yards."
"Good," said Santa. "No one can see us. He pulled at the reins. With scarcely a sound the reindeer brought the sleigh to a stop between turrets and chimneys on the roof of the palace.
"Now which chimney would lead to the room we're after?" wondered Santa.
"I know," said Princess Anne. The room is on the first floor of the crooked tower. There — there's the tower and the chimney!"
I looked where she pointed. I saw a crooked tower at the corner of the palace. Santa took our hands and helped us across to the tower chimney.
"I'll lead the way," he whispered. "But first I'll tell you a secret known to no man on earth. It's my magic chimney climbing word. Remember it now. It's PETRONEENYMO."
With that, he climbed into the chimney and dropped out of sight. The princess and I were scared to follow but we were scared even more to stay behind. We went first into that black and spooky hole.
At first we just stuck there and never moved at all and I thought we were trapped forever. Then I remembered and I gasped, PETRONEENYMO.
Instantly we floated gently down and a moment later Santa had our hands and we were out of the chimney and in the secret room. The princess' teeth chattered and my knees felt like they had come undone. But Santa boldly pulled out a candle, lit it and held it aloft.
I don't know what awful things I had expected to see in this mysterious room but what I saw was a bunch of statues. Behind the statues were shelves loaded with bottles of strange colored liquids, powders and pills. On the floor boxes were piled in heaps.
"Well," said Santa. "There doesn't seem to be anything so strange here. The king comes here to read and admire his statues and take medicine for some ailment."
I felt my fears ease away. It had all been the princess' imagination. I thought. She had run away from nothing.
I turned to tell her so. She was standing before a statue of a man. Her eyes were fastened on the eyes of the statue and she was all a tremble in her arms and legs.
Suddenly she fell to the floor in a faint.
Santa leaned over her and smoothed her hair. "It's all right," he murmured. "Everything's all right, you see. There's nothing to fear."
At last she opened her eyes. They were filled with awful terror and she whispered, "You're wrong. There is something more dreadful here than anything I imagined."
Santa started to speak but at that very moment we heard foot steps in the hall and the sound of a scratching at the door.

ASKSVOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE IN RACIAL TROUBLE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell has signaled for "voluntary compliance" as a first step toward ending racial segregation in local transportation.
The attorney general in effect called on transportation companies generally to go along with a Supreme Court decision saying forced separation of white and Negro passengers on intrastate buses and trains violates rights guaranteed by the Constitution.
The 33 U. S. district attorneys from 14 Southern and border states maintaining segregation laws for transportation were called here yesterday to confer with Brownell on ways to secure observance of the Supreme Court's Nov. 13 mandate.
"Most Appropriate"
The attorney general said in a statement after the conference that he and the prosecutors "considered at length those measures most appropriate." He added: "In the application of the Constitution to segregation on all common carriers primary emphasis will be placed upon voluntary compliance with the law as enunciated by the Supreme Court of the United States."
"Upon request, conferences with common carriers to define their legal rights and responsibilities will be held."
Brownell declined to say what other steps the federal government may take if the call for voluntary compliance does not bring about desegregation.

SET UP LIMITS ON EXPOSURE TO RADIATION

By FRANK CAREY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Recommendations for what would be the first radiation exposure limits ever set up for the population as a whole have been drafted by a quasiofficial watchdog committee.
The same group, the National Committee on Radiation Protection, has also drafted recommendations for what would amount to new and sharply reduced limits on radiation exposure for the nation's half million workers in atomic and similar plants.
This was reported Monday by Dr. Lauriston S. Taylor, chairman of the committee and a National Bureau of Standards scientist, in a report prepared for delivery later this week to a meeting of the American Nuclear Society. He amplified in an interview.
Limits Of "Acceptable Risk"
Taylor said the intent of both actions is to assure that exposure to radiation from all sources — including atomic bomb fall-out, products of atomic energy plants, and medical and dental uses of X-rays — does not go beyond a point of "acceptable risk" from the genetic or hereditary standpoint.
The committee he heads is sponsored by the Bureau of Standards. It is made up of representatives of the Atomic Energy Commission, the Public Health Service, American Medical Assn. and other professional and industry groups. It has no regulatory power but its recommendations in the past have been widely followed.
The unit by which radiation is measured is the roentgen. Taylor said the new recommendations are:
1. For the population as a whole — a limitation of 10 million roentgens of man-made radiation — delivered to the reproductive organs — for every one million persons in the population from conception up to age 30.
That would mean an average limit of 10 per person. Moreover, he said, not all radiation received by the body necessarily goes to the reproductive system — for example, in an X-ray examination of the teeth, less than one thousandth of the radiation used reaches the reproductive organs.

He added that the dose delivered to the reproductive organs may range from none at all for a few types of radiation exposure to virtually 100 per cent for some other types.

'57 Budget Approved By French Assembly

PARIS (AP) — Premier Guy Mollet's deficit budget for 1957 has been approved by six separate ballots in the French National Assembly.
In its final ballot last night, the Assembly approved 215-184 the record 4½-trillion-franc ($2,857,166,000) budget for metropolitan France. An additional 310 billion francs ($885,715,880) probably will be approved for Algeria and military operations against the nationalist rebellion in that North African area.
It is estimated that the total will mean a deficit of nearly 683 billion francs ($2,828,567,000).
The Socialist Premier made all six ballots votes of confidence in his government.

TUGBOAT, MAN LOST IN CRASH

NEW YORK (AP) — Coast Guard Headquarters said today no trace has been found of the wreckage of a tugboat which collided on Sunday with a freighter and sank in the Lower Delaware River channel near Delaware City, Del.
One of two men on the 50-foot tug Coot is now at the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital at Stapleton, N.Y. He is Howard Hughes, of Jackson Heights, N.Y. The other is missing and is presumed lost, the Coast Guard said. He has been identified only as a Capt. Wright.
The impact of the collision, with the Peruvian freighter Urubamba, apparently caused the small vessel to break up as it sank immediately in a 60-foot depth of water.
Search parties have been unable to retrieve any portion of the wreckage. The Coast Guard said there is no menace to navigation through the channel.

CONCESSIONS TO CHINA HINTED

CALCUTTA (AP) — Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai has hinted strongly that the United States must make concessions before the Peiping regime will release 10 Americans still held in Communist China.
Chou, winding up his tour of south India, told a news conference his government had released 34 Americans but that the United States had neither released any Chinese nor given Peiping a list of Chinese in the United States.
"With this comparison," the Premier said, "I leave it up to you to judge which side should make the next step in this matter."
The United States has repeatedly told Peiping that it is detaining no Chinese and all who wish to leave America have gone. It is wary of passing along any lists of Chinese because it fears the government will put pressure on their families in China.
Chou said the 10 Americans still held in China "have committed offenses against China and have not yet served out their sentences."
The tourist industry in Texas now earns more than $412 million a year. This is an increase of $136 million since 1950.

Bullets Host W. Maryland Wednesday; GHS Opens On Friday With Delone High

The home attractions for the Gettysburg College cagers and the opening contest for the Gettysburg High dribblers highlight the week's athletic program.

Bob Davies' Bullets, winless after four games, tangle with Western Maryland here Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, and Saturday night will be host to Hofstra. There will be no preliminary Wednesday but on Saturday the bullet frosh clash with the Hofstra yearlings.

The game with Western Maryland offers the college varsity a golden opportunity to crash into the win column. Dick Clower, new Terror coach mentor, lost his scoring ace of last year, Hugh McIntyre, via graduation but has only four lettermen remaining. They include Bill Sparr, 6-3, Tom Ruggin 6-1, Denny Harmon 5-11 and Harry Lambert 5-11.

Up from last year's jayvees are Sloan Stewart 6-2, Bob Passerello 6-0 and Joel Bailey 6-3. Promising freshmen include Dave Truitt 5-11, John Long 6-0, Bill Sanders 6-4, Jack Fringer 6-2, Bob Cole 6-0 Ross Selby 6-1, and Bob Johnson 6-2.

Gettysburg High will open its 1956-57 campaign by hosting Delone Catholic Friday night. The jayvee teams meet at 6:45.

Five Games Tonight

Five scholastic games are on tonight's program. Littlestown (0-2) plays at Delone (1-0); James Buchanan at Biglerville (0-3); East Berlin (1-3) is at Manchester; Fairfield (0-2) plays at St. Thomas, and New Oxford (1-2) goes to Spring Grove.

Wednesday's lone game is the Red Lion-Littlestown tilt at Littlestown.

Two Biglerville High teams are listed for action Thursday. The basketballers play at Scottdale while the Canner wrestlers open at Hanover.

In addition to the Delone-Gettysburg game Friday night, other school affairs include: Quincy boys and girls at York Springs; East Berlin at North Carroll; Fairfield boys and girls at Emmitsburg.

Hofstra At Mount Mt. St. Mary's has but one game scheduled this week, that with Hofstra at Emmitsburg Friday evening. There will be no preliminary and the lone game will start at 8:30. The Mountaineers are winless in three games.

Gene Haas' Gettysburg College matmen open their season by meeting Hofstra here Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

SAYS REDS 'TRY HARD' TO WIN

YORK, Pa. (AP) — Bob Hoffman admitted today that Russian athletes "try hard" to win in Olympic competition.

But the coach of America's Olympic weight lifting team was quick to add that Russian athletes don't give it "the old college try" but instead give it the "old business try."

Hoffman, who returned to his York County home last Saturday from the Olympic Games at Melbourne, criticized the Russian "amateur athlete" as "nothing more than a state employee."

"They take these athletes away to camps for months at a time and train them hard every possible minute of the day," Hoffman said, adding:

Have Stamina

"This gives them stamina and endurance such as can't be built up by American athletes who have to share their time among school, work and practice."

Hoffman raised quite a furor several weeks ago, when, before weight-lifting competition began, he charged publicly that the Weightlifting Jury of Appeals was influenced by Russia.

He said at the time that his team would make a good showing if the jury didn't "give us a raw deal."

"My statement paid off because we got a fair shake in the weight-lifting," Hoffman said. "But in some other sports, such as swim-

G-BURG AFROTC RIFLEMEN OPEN WITH TRIUMPH

The AFROTC rifle team of Gettysburg college fired two matches last week, the Randolph Hearst Trophy Match on Friday, and defeated the St. Joseph's College AFROTC rifle team on Saturday.

The team total in the Hearst Trophy match of 898 eclipsed last year's score by 56 points, showing the amount of improvement in the sophomore-dominated team, and indicated there are better things to come. The individual performances were led by Bill Jacques with a 185 out of a possible 200. He was followed by Paul Stahl, team captain, who fired a 184. Wally Snyder with 180, Tony Hall with 175 and Dave Walker with 174.

ST. LOUIS BEATS KENTUCKIANS; ALCORN HAS 24

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

Kansas has a myth playing center, Oklahoma A&M already has lost at home and Nebraska has beaten three Big Ten teams in three tries. But everything's normal in college basketball after all — Eddie Hickey and his St. Louis Billikens have knocked off Adolph Rupp's Kentuckians.

Hickey has a penchant for hitting the bluegrass baron like sour-mash on an empty stomach, and he did it again last night. Hours after the Wildcats had been granted the No. 3 spot in the first Associated Press poll of the season, the unranked, once-beaten Bills up and bopped 'em 71-70.

Harold Alcorn of the Billikens, a senior guard, outscored Kentucky 12-8 all by himself in one five-minute spurt midway through the final half and then put it away with two foul shots in the closing minutes. He finished with 24 points.

Second Ten Busy

Since coming to St. Louis, Hickey has beaten the Rupp four out of seven.

Kentucky was the only member of the newly elected top 10 in action last night, although three teams in the second 10 were at it. Western Kentucky (No. 12) made it 3-0 with a 95-74 breeze past New Mexico A & M; Oklahoma A & M (No. 19), after dropping a home game to Washington, made it 4-1 with a comeback, 59-50 decision over Arkansas; and Seattle (No. 20) gained a 4-1 standing with a 47-44 win on Santa Clara.

In conference play, Maryland gained a tie with the Atlantic Coast lead with Duke by defeating Wake Forest 59-53.

Nebraska Wins

Nebraska kept the heat on the Big Ten by defeating winless Wisconsin 53-51 as Gary Reimers and Don Smith hit two foul shots apiece to break a 49-all tie with 3:25 left.

Pennsylvania results: Juniata 89, Shippensburg Teachers 63; Mansfield Teachers 63, Lycoming 53; Lebanon Valley 74, Albright 63; Rider 79, Susquehanna 64; Indiana 73, Butler 68; Duquesne 73, St. Francis (Pa.) 61; Wilkes 83, Moravian 82; Bethany (W.Va.) 70, Waynesburg 62; West Chester Teachers 49, Millersville 43.

KANSAS ON TOP IN 1ST AP POLL ON BASKETBALL

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ

The Associated Press

Kansas, spearheaded by seven-foot Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, tops the collegiate rankings in the first Associated Press basketball poll of the season.

The heralded sophomore averaged 45.5 points in the Jayhawkers' two victories at home over Northwestern and Marquette. The sports writers and sportscasters seemed so impressed by Chamberlain's varsity debut that 58 of the 108 participating in the balloting picked Kansas as No. 1.

Kansas accumulated 896 points with the standings figured on the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc. San Francisco, No. 1 team in the final AP poll the past two seasons, is runner-up with 675 points, including 18 firsts.

Kentucky, displaying another sophomore sensation in Johnny Cox, rolled up three straight victories to rank third in the listings with 514 points.

Louisville Fourth

Louisville, National Invitational Tourney winner last March, is fourth with 403 points, two more than Southern Methodist, with 401. Rounding out the top 10 are North Carolina (No. 6), Illinois (No. 7), North Carolina State (No. 8) Alabama (No. 9) and Canisius (No. 10).

BOB FELLER TO TAKE JOB IN FRONT OFFICE

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Feller, the Van Meter, Iowa, ploughboy who grew up to become the major league strikeout king and one of baseball's greatest of all pitchers, has decided to retire from active service after 21 years with the Cleveland Indians.

A friend of Feller's advised The Associated Press today that the former fireballing right-hander, who turned 38 last month, had told him he had just about made up his mind to retire from the player ranks and accept an offer of a job in the Indians' front office.

Feller is now attending a meeting in New Orleans of the Baseball Players' Association of which he is president. He is expected to make his retirement announcement within a week or 10 days.

"Crazy To Hang On," Bob had his mind pretty well made up when I talked to him," Feller's friend declared. "At first he was determined to continue on the active list, if not with the Indians then with another big league club. Now I believe he is convinced he would be crazy to hang on."

Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg, who had offered the front office job to Feller, said he had received no word from the former Indian ace.

"I certainly hope it's true," Greenberg declared.

Cleveland's Elik Holds Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Bo Elik's challenges in the race for American Hockey League scoring honors stirred a bit during the past week, but the Cleveland Baron rookie maintained a four-point edge on runner-up Paul Lavrice of Providence.

Elik accounted for four assists to raise his league-leading total to 40 points, including 23 goals. AHL high in that department, Lavrice moved past Cleveland's Fred Glover into second place with 36 points. Glover is a point back.

Cleveland's Jimmy Moore retained his leadership in assists with 25 and Larry Zeidel of Hershey continued to spend the most time in the penalty box. He has drawn 90 minutes for infractions. Providence goalie Johnny Bower is the leading netminder, allowing a low of 2.53 goals per game.

GIAMBRA BEATS CASTELLANI IN FRISCO FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Joey Giambra, an ex-GI middleweight boxer from Buffalo, N.Y., called for another bout with Joey Giardello "any place" after beating Rocky Castellani again last night.

Giambra already has battled Giardello twice, losing the first time and then squaring accounts. He feels another victory could put him in line for a shot at the 160-pound title.

"Can't Win Here"

Last night before 5,500 fans who paid $31.52, the 24-year-old, 157½-pound Giambra rallied after losing the first three rounds. The 29-year-old Castellani from Cleveland weighed 160.

In both the fourth and fifth stanzas, Joey scored heavily with combinations to the head and Rocky appeared wobbly although saying after the bout that he had not been in trouble. A small cut was opened alongside his left eye in the fifth but didn't bother him.

In fact, said Castellani, "I thought I won the fight, but I can't seem to get a decision here in San Francisco."

Unanimous Decision

He had lost here to then champion Bobo Olson in a title match and also to the present middleweight king, Sugar Ray Robinson.

Giambra said his foe gave him more trouble last night than four months ago when he also caught a unanimous nod.

Referee Jack Downey scored the bout 96-94 under California's 10-point must system that gives the winner of each round 10 points and the loser nine or less.

Judge Vern Bybee scored it 96-93. Judge Frankie Carter 97-93 and The Associated Press 97-94, all for Giambra.

CHICAGO CUBS GAIN CATCHERS IN TWO DEALS

By JOE REICHER

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs, who only 24 hours ago were desperately seeking to strengthen their catching department, had two new backstops today after the purchase of Charlie Silvera from the New York Yankees and the acquisition of Ray Katt in a 10-player trade with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Katt, a 247 hitter who clouted 13 home runs last season, came first. With him came pitchers Tom Poholsky and Jackie Collum and infielder Wally Lammers, who was immediately shipped to the Cubs' Los Angeles farm club in the Pacific Coast League.

Two other players, of minor league caliber, have been promised by the Cardinals no later than March 1. These players will be sent to the Yankees along with $10,000 for Silvera.

In return for the Redbird flock, the Cubs sent pitchers Sam Jones and Jim Davis, catcher Hobie Landrith and utility man Eddie Mik

CONGRESS MAY TRY AGAIN TO HIT RED UNIONS

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The ineffectiveness of two congressional efforts to provide punishment for Communist-led labor unions raised the prospect today that the nation's legislators may try again next year.

The first effort was contained in the 1947 Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act, the other in the Communist Control Act of 1954.

The Supreme Court yesterday vetoed a four-year drive by the National Labor Relations Board to punish unions with leaders found to have filed false non-Communist affidavits under the 1947 law requirement. The court said the leaders could be punished, but not their unions.

Two Cases Pending
The Communist Control Act, vested in the Subversive Activities Control Board the power to strip Red-infiltrated unions of the NLRB's vita, help in obtaining and enforcing bargaining rights. But two cases initiated over a year ago under that law by Atty. Gen. Brownell never have gotten past legal preliminaries.

is presently planning a new set of proposed revisions in the Taft-Hartley, labor law to present to Congress in January. Consideration of any such proposals inevitably would include the matter of dealing with Communist-led unions.

In its unanimous ruling yesterday, the Supreme Court held in two cases that the sole penalty in the Taft-Hartley law is one against officers who file false affidavits from officers of unions which wish to use the NLRB processes.

Two Convicted
The two cases involve the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers and the International Fur and Leather Workers Union, the latter now a branch of the AFL-CIO Amalgamated Meatcutters. Both the Mine-Mill and the Fur-Leather Unions were among those the old CIO ousted for alleged Communist domination.

PUSH MOVE TO OUST RUSSIANS FROM HUNGARY

By TOM HOGG
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—India and her three closest Asian allies pressed a new proposal today to get Russian troops out of Hungary by sending U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to negotiate with the Kremlin.

Indian Delegate V. K. Krishna Menon was the prime mover behind the new plan as the 79-nation General Assembly continued its latest debate on the rebellion in Hungary.

Ceylon, Indonesia and Burma joined in sponsoring the Indian resolution urging that Hammarskjöld be sent to Budapest and Moscow if necessary to seek Russian withdrawal from the battered satellite.

Some Western diplomats contended the Indian resolution lacked the teeth of a U.S. resolution already before the Assembly. Backed by 17 nations, it would condemn the Soviet Union sharply for Hungary's plight.

Others thought, however, that a proposal from Asian nations Russia has been wooing would gain more ground than any step by the West.

Menon refused to go along with condemnation of the Reds. Instead his resolution "deplores" that the Russians have made no move to get their troops out of Hungary.

As an alternative, Menon presented a series of amendments to the 17-power proposal to bring it into line with his own resolution. The amendments would have Hammarskjöld open talks at the U.N. with both Russian and Hungarian representatives. If those failed to get results, he would be asked to try to visit the Russian capital to discuss a halt to Soviet intervention in Hungary and recognition of the rights of Hungarian citizens.

India, Ceylon and Indonesia three weeks ago put in a resolution calling on Hungary to let in U.N. observers to find out what was going on. That resolution got nowhere except to perturb the Russians who had counted on silence if not assent from the neutral Asian group on the Hungarian issue.

There was speculation that the Kremlin might now favor intervention from Asia if it provided a face-saving way out of an increasingly awkward situation.

Faced with mounting U.N. pressure to get out of Hungary, the Russians have insisted that their troops were in Budapest under the auspices of the Warsaw Pact and at the urging of the Hungarians themselves.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vassily V. Kuznetsov went a step farther yesterday and demanded that the Assembly condemn the United States for allegedly inciting the Hungarian revolt.

SEARCH PARTIES SEEK AIRLINER LOST WITH 62

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—Ground search parties prepared today to enter the rugged Mt. Silvertip area about 125 miles east of here to look for a Trans-Canada airliner missing with 62 occupants since Sunday night. Eight of the 59 passengers were Americans.

Search leaders said their most promising lead was a report of a "big blast" in the vicinity of 8,500-foot Mt. Silvertip. The report came from nine persons who were at a ski lodge on the Hope-Princeton highway north of the mountain.

People at the lodge said they heard the blast Sunday night soon after the four-engine North Star, Canadian version of the American DC4, radioed it was returning to Vancouver with an inboard motor disabled.

An search in the Hope, B. C., area yesterday was fruitless. The plane had taken off from Vancouver for Calgary and points east about an hour before the pilot, Capt. Allan Clark, 35, Montreal, reported the inboard motor on the left side had failed near Hope and he was turning back to Vancouver some 100 miles away. RCAF Squadron Leader G. L. Sheahan in charge of the search said it will be necessary to get into the area where the reported blast occurred before it shows again and added: "If we don't we're beat."

U.N. IS ASKED TO CONDEMN REDS FOR VIOLATIONS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States and 15 other nations asked the U.N. General Assembly Monday to condemn the Soviet government for violating the U.N. Charter by depriving Hungary of independence and the Hungarians of their rights.

The resolution being introduced in the Assembly today would call on the Russians "to make immediate arrangements for the withdrawal, under United Nations observation, of its armed forces from Hungary and to permit the re-establishment of the political independence of Hungary."

One outspoken opponent of the Soviet action in Hungary, Cuban Delegate Emilio Nunez-Portuondo, said he would introduce a resolution in a few days to put the Assembly on record in favor of Russia's suspension of expulsion from the U.N. if it continued to disregard assembly resolutions on Hungary. He said he also would call for ouster of the Hungarian delegation.

Won't Be Expelled

There was no chance that the Assembly would suspend or expel Russia even if it should adopt such a Cuban resolution.

The Soviet Union and puppet Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar have ignored or rejected four previous Assembly resolutions adopted since Nov. 4, when Soviet troops returned to Budapest, installed Kadar and began a bloody repression of the widespread re-

2,589 Refugees Flee Into Austria Sunday

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Despite martial law in Hungary, refugees continued to stream into Austria. Austrian authorities said 2,589 refugees came across the border Sunday night.

This continued stream is one of the major mysteries of the Hungarian crisis. Although the Russians have had weeks to seal off the Hungarian-Austrian border if they wished, the refugees slip through, some in groups of 50. The total is now approaching the 130,000 mark.

One refugee said he was certain that Russian troops near the frontier heard his party approaching the border during the night, since several babies were crying loudly. But no effort was made to stop the party.

Large numbers of refugees undoubtedly have been stopped however and sent back to their homes.

volts against communism.

The previous resolutions all called for withdrawal of Soviet troops, an end to deportations of the rebels and admission of U.N. observers.

The new draft resolution said, "Recent events have clearly demonstrated the will of the Hungarian people to recover their liberty and independence."

The new resolution is sponsored by Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Chile, Denmark, El Salvador, Ireland, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Peru, the Philippines, Sweden, Thailand and the United States.

GUERRILLAS FIRE ON PATROL IN PORT SAID

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP)—Egyptian guerrillas attacked a British patrol from a rooftop in Port Said's Arab quarter with a burst of machine-gun fire and a hail of hand grenades.

One soldier of the eight-man Royal Scots regiment patrol was wounded slightly. The British-French command sent off an urgent protest to headquarters of the U.N. emergency police force, accusing Egypt of violating the cease-fire.

The patrol called reinforcements and cordoned off the area. Seven Egyptians were arrested. The ambush was the first such attack in Port Said by the Egyptian underground since the cease-fire became effective Nov. 8. Previously there have been scattered shots fired occasionally.

Harass Forces

The aim apparently was to harass the diminishing British-French force as it rushed its withdrawal order by the U.N. General Assembly. The bulk of British and French troops are expected to be gone from Egypt within three days.

The Egyptian underground has been growing more openly hostile as the day of the final British-French pullout nears. The occupation commanders have put their men on the alert for a final Egyptian show of defiance.

A barbed wire barricade was stretched around the Port Said dock area in preparation for the final withdrawal. Patrols have been strengthened. Troops were barred from streets except on es-

146 More Refugees Arrive By Plane

CAMP KILMER, N.J. (AP)—The tempo of Operation Mercy stepped up Monday as the fourth and fifth plane loads of Hungarian refugees to arrive within a 24-hour period were brought to this resettlement center.

Two chartered airliners touched down at 2:30 a.m. at nearby McGuire Air Force Base with 72 and 74 refugees, respectively, on a Transatlantic flight from Vienna.

The first of the five arriving planes, the largest 24-hour total so far in the 20-day old refugee airlift, flew in to Philadelphia at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday when bad weather prevented it from landing at McGuire. The 72 passengers aboard were brought here in buses.

Decorated Tree Is Stolen Off Roof

BALTIMORE (AP)—Chief of Police Wilbur C. Wade wondered today if maybe Santa Claus had paid an early visit to Maryland.

He was trying to figure out who could have stolen a completely decorated Christmas tree off the roof of the Dug Out Inn at Marley Park.

"Whoever took it must have flown up there," he said. "There was no ladder or ladder marks."

TEN STRANDED AIRMEN BACK FROM SOUTH POLE

By DON GUY

McMURDO SOUND, Antarctica (AP)—Ten airmen—stranded at the South Pole by engine trouble—have repaired their plane and returned to this antarctic coast base.

They brought back word that the 24 U. S. Seabees building a scientific station at the pole were happy, warm and well fed "but they naturally will be glad to get the job done and get home again."

Capt. Douglas L. Cordner, one of the airmen who spent two days at the pole after their Navy Neptune bomber developed trouble in a jet engine, said the Seabees have put up three of the six buildings they are to erect. He said major construction should be finished by the end of the month.

Base For Scientists

The station is being built for American scientists who will make observations during the sunless antarctic winter beginning in mid-March. The project is part of America's participation in the International Geophysical Year.

The Navy Neptune's two jet and two propeller engines were too powerful enough to take off unaided from the two-mile high ice-cap, as the crew had hoped.

After a 7,000-foot run and the extra blast of 16 jet assisted take-off bottles, the plane still was so low its skis picked up one of the red flags marking the polar runway and brought it all the 800 miles back to McMurdo Sound.

U.N. IS ASKED TO CONDEMN REDS FOR VIOLATIONS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States and 15 other nations asked the U.N. General Assembly Monday to condemn the Soviet government for violating the U.N. Charter by depriving Hungary of independence and the Hungarians of their rights.

The resolution being introduced in the Assembly today would call on the Russians "to make immediate arrangements for the withdrawal, under United Nations observation, of its armed forces from Hungary and to permit the re-establishment of the political independence of Hungary."

One outspoken opponent of the Soviet action in Hungary, Cuban Delegate Emilio Nunez-Portuondo, said he would introduce a resolution in a few days to put the Assembly on record in favor of Russia's suspension of expulsion from the U.N. if it continued to disregard assembly resolutions on Hungary. He said he also would call for ouster of the Hungarian delegation.

Won't Be Expelled
There was no chance that the Assembly would suspend or expel Russia even if it should adopt such a Cuban resolution.

The Soviet Union and puppet Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar have ignored or rejected four previous Assembly resolutions adopted since Nov. 4, when Soviet troops returned to Budapest, installed Kadar and began a bloody repression of the widespread re-

2,589 Refugees Flee Into Austria Sunday

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Despite martial law in Hungary, refugees continued to stream into Austria. Austrian authorities said 2,589 refugees came across the border Sunday night.

This continued stream is one of the major mysteries of the Hungarian crisis. Although the Russians have had weeks to seal off the Hungarian-Austrian border if they wished, the refugees slip through, some in groups of 50. The total is now approaching the 130,000 mark.

One refugee said he was certain that Russian troops near the frontier heard his party approaching the border during the night, since several babies were crying loudly. But no effort was made to stop the party.

Large numbers of refugees undoubtedly have been stopped however and sent back to their homes.

Violence against communism.

The previous resolutions all called for withdrawal of Soviet troops, an end to deportations of the rebels and admission of U.N. observers.

The new draft resolution said, "Recent events have clearly demonstrated the will of the Hungarian people to recover their liberty and independence."

The new resolution is sponsored by Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Chile, Denmark, El Salvador, Ireland, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Peru, the Philippines, Sweden, Thailand and the United States.

GUERRILLAS FIRE ON PATROL IN PORT SAID

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP)—Egyptian guerrillas attacked a British patrol from a rooftop in Port Said's Arab quarter with a burst of machine-gun fire and a hail of hand grenades.

One soldier of the eight-man Royal Scots regiment patrol was wounded slightly. The British-French command sent off an urgent protest to headquarters of the U.N. emergency police force, accusing Egypt of violating the cease-fire.

The patrol called reinforcements and cordoned off the area. Seven Egyptians were arrested.

The ambush was the first such attack in Port Said by the Egyptian underground since the cease-fire became effective Nov. 8. Previously there have been scattered shots fired occasionally.

Harass Forces

The aim apparently was to harass the diminishing British-French force as it rushed its withdrawal order by the U.N. General Assembly. The bulk of British and French troops are expected to be gone from Egypt within three days.

The Egyptian underground has been growing more openly hostile as the day of the final British-French pullout nears. The occupation commanders have put their men on the alert for a final Egyptian show of defiance.

A barbed wire barricade was stretched around the Port Said dock area in preparation for the final withdrawal. Patrols have been strengthened. Troops were barred from streets except on es-

CONGRESS MAY TRY AGAIN TO HIT RED UNIONS

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON — The ineffectiveness of two congressional efforts to provide punishment for Communist-led labor unions raised the prospect today that the nation's legislators may try again next year.

The first effort was contained in the 1947 Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act, the other in the Communist Control Act of 1954. The Supreme Court yesterday vetoed a four-year drive by the National Labor Relations Board to punish unions with leaders found to have filed false non-Communist affidavits under the 1947 law requirement. The court said the leaders could be punished, but not their unions.

Two Cases Pending
The Communist Control Act vested in the Subversive Activities Control Board the power to strip Red-infiltrated unions of the NLRB's vital help in obtaining and enforcing bargaining rights. But two cases initiated over a year ago under that law by Atty. Gen. Brownell never have gotten past legal preliminaries.

is presently planning a new set of proposed revisions in the Taft-Hartley labor law to present to Congress in January. Consideration of any such proposals inevitably would include the matter of dealing with Communist-led unions.

In its unanimous ruling yesterday the Supreme Court held in two cases that the sole penalty in the Taft-Hartley law is one against officers who file false affidavits from officers of unions which wish to use the NLRB processes.

Two Convicted
The two cases involve the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers and the International Fur and Leather Workers Union, the latter now a branch of the AFL-CIO Amalgamated Meatcutters. Both the Mine-Mill and the Fur-Leather Unions were among those the old CIO ousted for alleged Communist domination.

PUSH MOVE TO OUST RUSSIANS FROM HUNGARY

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — India and her three closest Asian allies pressed a new proposal today to get Russian troops out of Hungary by sending U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to negotiate with the Kremlin.

Indian Delegate V. K. Krishna Menon was the prime mover behind the new plan as the 79-nation General Assembly continued its latest debate on the rebellion in Hungary.

Ceylon, Indonesia and Burma joined in sponsoring the Indian resolution urging that Hammarskjöld be sent to Budapest, and Moscow if necessary, to seek Russian withdrawal from the battered satellite.

Some Western diplomats contended the Indian resolution lacked the teeth of a U.S. resolution already before the Assembly. Backed by 17 nations, it would condemn the Soviet Union sharply for Hungary's plight.

Others thought, however, that a proposal from Asian nations Russia has been wooing would gain more ground than any step by the West.

Menon refused to go along with condemnation of the Reds. Instead his resolution "deplores" that the Russians have made no former Mine-Mill secretary-treasurer, were convicted of filing false non-Communist affidavits, quit their union jobs and are now appealing their convictions.

move to get their troops out of Hungary.

As an alternative, Menon presented a series of amendments to the 17-power proposal to bring it into line with his own resolution. The amendments would have Hammarskjöld open talks at the U.N. with both Russian and Hungarian representatives. If those failed to get results, he would be asked to try to visit the Russian capital to discuss a halt to Soviet intervention in Hungary and recognition of the rights of Hungary's citizens.

India, Ceylon and Indonesia three weeks ago put in a resolution calling on Hungary to let in U.N. observers to find out what was going on. That resolution got nowhere except to perturb the Russians, who had counted on silence if not assent from the "neutral" Asian group on the Hungarian issue.

There was speculation that the Kremlin might now favor intervention from Asia if it provided a face-saving way out of an increasingly awkward situation.

Faced with mounting U.N. pressure to get out of Hungary, the Russians have insisted that their troops were in Budapest under the auspices of the Warsaw Pact and at the urging of the Hungarians themselves.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov went a step farther yesterday and demanded that the Assembly condemn the United States for allegedly inciting the Hungarian revolt.

SEARCH PARTIES SEEK AIRLINER LOST WITH 62

VANCOUVER, B. C. — Ground search parties prepared today to enter the rugged Mt. Silvertip area about 125 miles east of here to look for a Trans-Canadian airliner missing with 62 occupants since Sunday night. Eight of the 39 passengers were Americans.

Search leaders said their "most promising lead" was a report of a "big blast" in the vicinity of 8,550-foot Mt. Silvertip. The report came from nine persons who were at a ski lodge on the Hope-Princeton highway north of the mountain.

People at the lodge said they heard the blast Sunday night soon after the four-engine North Star, Canadian version of the American DC4, radioed it was returning to Vancouver with an inboard motor disabled.

Air search in the Hope, B. C., area yesterday was fruitless. The plane had taken off from Vancouver for Calgary and points east about an hour before the pilot, Capt. Allan Clark, 35, Montreal, reported the inboard motor on the left side had failed near Hope and he was turning back to Vancouver, some 100 miles away. RCAF Squadron Leader G. L. Sheahan, in charge of the search, said it will be necessary to get into the area where the reported "blast" occurred before it snows again and added: "If we don't, we're beat."

Costs More To Hate Elvis Than Love Him

PHILADELPHIA — It can cost more to hate Elvis Presley than to love him here. A downtown stand sells "I hate Elvis" buttons for 15 cents. "I love Elvis" emblems cost only a dime. The vendor says he had to cut the price of the "love" buttons because they weren't selling.

HUGE LOAN TO BRITISH MAY CLEAR THE AIR

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The loan of $1,300,000,000 to Britain by the International Monetary Fund last night may clear the Washington air for a while, at least. It was getting confused toward the end of last week.

Britain had suffered economic damage from her joint attack with France on Egypt. For one thing, the invasion cost money. For another, oil supplies from the Middle East were shut off when the Suez Canal was blocked.

The United States is going to make up a part of the oil loss by shipping oil from here. Nevertheless, Britain showed she still was in an economic squeeze by asking this country to waive nearly $2 million dollars in interest on previous debts.

In U.S. Interest

Keeping the British economy healthy is in the interest of the United States. A collapse in Britain would be felt around the world, particularly in Western Europe.

Last Thursday some high authorities in the government were talking of increased aid to Britain, not as big as the Marshall plan, but nevertheless sizable. But the talk was vague.

On Thursday night Vice President Nixon touched on the same subject in a New York speech although he too was vague when he said:

"I believe it is in our interest as well as theirs (the British) in this hour of difficulty, and I am confident that there will be strong bipartisan support in Congress for granting such assistance."

For Administration

It seemed unlikely Nixon would talk like that unless he knew he was stating administration thinking.

As if to make it official, James C. Hagerly, President Eisenhower's press secretary, said that while Eisenhower didn't see the Nixon speech beforehand, "the vice president knows the policies of the President."

So administration thinking seemed to be in the direction of fresh aid for Britain, to be voted by Congress. But on Saturday night Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey appeared to throw cold water on this notion.

Speaking in New York, he said:

Exaggerated Figures

"Some of the estimates for financial support have been greatly exaggerated. The fact is that in all probability existing institutions will be able to provide most of the assistance that may be needed."

The "existing institutions" Humphrey had in mind must have included the International Monetary Fund, established in 1947. The United States, Britain and a batch of other countries are members.

Help For British

Each contributes a share of the money which makes up the fund from which a needy member can get a loan, as Britain did last night. The British will have to pay interest on the money, besides paying back the principal.

But the fund is an international organization. Congress has nothing to do with the loans it makes. So Humphrey was right, at least up to now.

Maybe by the time Congress comes back in January Britain will need more money. If so, the Eisenhower administration will then have to ask Congress to help the British.

JOHNNY DIO'S TRIAL DELAYED UNTIL SPRING

NEW YORK (AP)—Trial of Johnny Dio, who the government contends masterminded the acid-blinding of labor writer Victor Riesel, has been postponed until next spring. Selection of a jury was to begin today.

Federal Judge William B. Herlands yesterday ordered adjournment of the trial until April 24.

over bitter objections of defense counsel on the court's own motion for adjournment. Herlands said the four-month delay was necessary for Dio and three others to get a fair trial. The judge said he wanted public emotions to simmer down.

The government took no position on adjournment.

Surprise To All

Herlands' ruling, which came at a pretrial hearing, surprised both defense and prosecution counsel. Riesel, whose column is syndicated nationally, was permanently blinded by a thug who threw acid in his face outside a Broadway restaurant April 5. Three other men were given prison sentences last week as conspirators. The government charges the attack on Riesel was aimed at intimidating him in connection with a racketeering investigation into the garment and trucking industry.

Dio Runs To Attorney

Dio, whose real name is John Dioguardi, jumped up and ran over to talk to his attorney, William Kleinman, when Herlands made his announcement of adjournment.

The others accused with Dio, 41, of Point Lookout, N. Y., are Theodore (Teddy) Ray, Charles Tuso and Charles Salvatore Carlinio.

Abe Telvi, the man the government says threw the acid at Riesel, was found shot dead, gangland style, on the lower East Side last July 28.

Kleinman charged that the prosecution would appreciate a delay in the trial to give it time to "work" on the three Dio codefendants: Gondolfo Maranti, Leo Felet and Domenico Bando, convicted before Herlands' last work.

Kleinman said the government had hoped to turn Maranti and Bando into prosecution witnesses once they were convicted.

G-BURG FOURTH ON DEFENSE IN SMALL COLLEGES

According to final statistics released by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau and by the Eastern College Athletic Conference, Gettysburg College's football team was one of the nations outstanding small-college defensive teams and one of the East's top units on both defense and offense.

Gettysburg finished fourth in rushing defense and 12th among all small colleges in total defense. Among Eastern small colleges, the Bullets were first in rushing defense, third in total defense, third in rushing offense and fifth in total offense. In winning seven games and losing two, Gettysburg rushed for 1,999 yards in 468 attempts and nine games for 222.1 running yards per game. The Bullets' total offense was 2,546 yards in 573 attempts for 282.9 yards a game. Defensively, Coach John Yovicsin's team was even more brilliant, allowing a total of 663 rushing yards or a mere 73.7 yards per game. In total defense, the Bullets allowed 1,542 yards or 171.3 per cent.

Brilliant Ground Defense
A closer inspection of the rushing defense shows how effective Gettysburg actually was in that department. Bucknell, in the second game of the season, was the last team to score on the ground against the Bullets. The four touchdowns scored against Gettysburg in the seven games after that all came on passes. Thus, the Bullets, in winning seven straight after the Bucknell loss, allowed no touchdowns on the ground and held seven straight opponents to a total of 259 rushing yards or 37.0 yards per game.

In national rushing defense among small colleges, Gettysburg finished fourth to Hillsdale College (Mich.), Tennessee State and New Haven State. In total defense, the Bullets were 12th behind Tennessee State, Hillsdale, Westminster, Capital (Ohio), Moravian, Allen (S.C.), Florida A.M., Juniata, Montana State, South Carolina State and Virginia Union.

Among Eastern small colleges, Gettysburg ranked fifth behind Lehigh, Lafayette, Hofstra and in rushing offense. While the Bullets were the best in rushing defense, they took a back seat to Moravian and Juniata in total defense.

Individually, Gettysburg fullback Frank Capitani was No. 7 man in Eastern small-college rushing with 526 yards in 105 carries for a 5.0 average. Capitani, a junior, now has a two-season rushing record of 1,048 yards in 173 carries, for an average of better than six yards per carry.

Favorable Comments
Mr. Lefever also showed the board samples of the request and permit forms he expects to use in carrying out the new rules.

On a general discussion of the regulation, it was agreed that special cases will have to be given attention in administering the rules. Two directors said they had received favorable comments after the board's action last month was announced.

Increasingly acute problems from noon hour activities of high school pupils, including congregating in some "less than desirable" places, brawls and dangerous use of autos, were listed last month as reasons for the closed noon hour, in force in many nearby high schools.

annual directors-employees dinner at the high school February 7 and placed arrangements in the hands of a committee made up of the presidents of the member boards.

The board ordered bus transportation provided for the FFA and FFA students at the high school and the State Farm Show next month in Harrisburg. They approved payment of bus transportation bills totaling $373 for high school band trips to away football games. The cost, usually paid out of the athletic department funds, could not be financed that way this year for lack of funds and the bill was turned over to the school board.

The high school alumni association was granted use of the school cafeteria for the annual Christmas dance December 26.

Bills totaling $10,523 were ordered paid.

Cafeteria Reports

The monthly report from the high school cafeteria showed it operated 20 days last month, serving an average of 575 pupils and 43 adults with an income of $4,792 and expenses of $5,204 including $943 for new equipment.

At the Keefeauver school the cafeteria also operated 20 days, serving an average of 476 pupils and 30 adults with an income of $3,271 and expenditure of $3,238 which left a net profit of $33.05 to go into the cafeteria fund for replacement of equipment.

The monthly report of the Gettysburg National Bank, school district treasurer, showed tuition receipts of $29,000 in the last month and other income of $7,000 with expenses totaling $53,082 and a monthly balance of $60,662 in the general fund. The monthly report of the school nurse which drew special praise from Superintendent Keefeauver showed physical examinations were given 190 pupils last month and dental exams totaled 226. Six serious accidents occurred last month requiring hospital treatment for three. Her report showed 175 physical and dental examinations made in the month at St. Francis Parochial School.

The report also showed 177 pupils reporting to the school nurses for illness or injury and 66 for gym excuses in the month; four taken home ill; 12 home visits; four taken to their own doctor; 13 referred to their doctor; 3 referred to the mental health clinic and 634 given chest X-rays.

The broadcast said Budapest hospitals have only a four-day supply of coal on hand and numerous hospitals in the country have only what they "can scrounge." It said 10,000 hospital patients were endangered.

Refugees reported that the re-organized security police under the Kadar government were carrying out mass arrests of workers' council members, despite protests and spontaneous strikes by workers in factories where the raids were made.

Accounts reaching Belgrade said the Hungarian countryside had been swept by outbursts of partisan warfare in the past two days. They described Budapest itself as relatively calm but said the city was encircled by a steel ring of Soviet armor and guns.

The Belgrade reports said strong units of well-organized guerrilla fighters were operating in many parts of Hungary, with some of the strongest groups in the area surrounding the Yugoslav-Hungarian border.

Fighting of major proportions also was reported in and around Dunapentele, one of Hungary's chief steel-producing centers.

Tension was heightened by the slaying of 80 unarmed civilian demonstrators by Hungarian police at the mining town of Salgotarjan, in northern Hungary.

There were many employers who themselves wanted to be fair in their employment practices but were fearful that their employees would resent such practices, or were fearful of public opinion.

With a law on the books they could do what they wanted to do without fear of public censure.

"Actually the law in Pennsylvania protects the employer as well as the employee because not only does it forbid the employer from practicing discrimination, but it also forbids the employee from penalizing the employer who is following the law."

"We have made it a policy to proceed by persuasion, using the law and its penalties as a last resort, and it has paid off over the years."

"Fair employment practices in regard to the Negro, the Jew and the other minority groups came into effect to a large extent during World War II when the great shortage of manpower forced the issue and many industrialists found that fair employment practices paid off in the business world."

G-BURG FOURTH ON DEFENSE IN SMALL COLLEGES

According to final statistics released by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau and by the Eastern College Athletic Conference, Gettysburg College's football team was one of the nations outstanding small-college defensive teams and one of the East's top units on both defense and offense.

Gettysburg finished fourth among the nation's small colleges in rushing defense and 12th among all small colleges in total defense. Among Eastern small colleges, the Bullets were first in rushing defense, third in total defense, third in rushing offense and fifth in total offense. In winning seven games and losing two, Gettysburg rushed for 1,989 yards in 468 attempts and nine games for 222.1 running yards per game. The Bullets' total offense was 2,546 yards in 573 attempts for 282.9 yards a game. Defensively, Coach John Yocis's team was even more brilliant, allowing a total of 663 rushing yards or a mere 73.7 yards per game. In total defense, the Bullets allowed 1,542 yards or 171.3 per contest.

Brilliant Ground Defense
A closer inspection of the rushing defense shows how effective Gettysburg actually was in that department. Bucknell, in the second game of the season, was the last team to score on the ground against the Bullets. The four touchdowns scored against Gettysburg in the seven games after that all came on passes. Thus, the Bullets, in winning seven straight after the Bucknell loss, allowed no touchdowns on the ground and held seven straight opponents to a total of 239 rushing yards or 37.0 yards per game.

In national rushing defense among small colleges, Gettysburg finished fourth to Hillsdale College (Mich.). Tennessee State and New Haven State. In total defense, the Bullets were 12th behind Tennessee State, Hillsdale, Westminster, Capital (Ohio), Moravian, Allen (S.C.), Florida A&M, Juniata, Montana State, South Carolina State and Virginia Union.

Among Eastern small colleges, Gettysburg ranked fifth behind Lehigh, Lafayette, Hofstra and Juniata in total offense, and third behind Juniata and Lafayette in rushing offense. While the Bullets were the best in rushing defense, they took a back seat to Moravian and Juniata in total defense.

Individually, Gettysburg fullback Frank Capitani was No. 7 man in Eastern small-college rushing with 526 yards in 105 carries for a 5.0 average. Capitani, a junior, now has a two-season rushing record of 1,048 yards in 173 carries, for an average of better than six yards per carry.

On a general discussion of the regulation, it was agreed that special cases will have to be given attention in administering the rules.

Two directors said they had received favorable comments after the board's action last month was announced.

Increasingly acute problems from noon hour activities of high school pupils, including congregating in some "less than desirable" places, brawls and dangerous use of autos, were listed last month as reasons for the closed noon hour, in force in many nearby high schools.

annual directors-employees dinner at the high school February 7 and placed arrangements in the hands of a committee made up of the presidents of the member boards.

The board ordered bus transportation provided for the FFA and FFAA students at the high school to the State Farm Show next month in Harrisburg. They approved payment of bus transportation bills totaling $373 for high school band trips to away football games. The cost, usually paid out of the athletic department funds, could not be financed that way this year for lack of funds and the bill was turned over to the school board.

The high school alumni association was granted use of the school cafeteria for the annual Christmas dance December 26.

Bills totaling $10,523 were ordered paid.

Six serious accidents occurred last month requiring hospital treatment for three. Her report showed 175 physical and dental examinations made in the month at St. Francis Parochial School.

The report also showed 177 pupils reporting to the school nurses for illness or injury and 66 for gym excuses in the month; four taken home ill; 12 home visits; four taken to their own doctor; 13 referred to their doctor; 3 referred to the mental health clinic and 634 given chest X-rays.

The broadcast said Budapest hospitals have only a four-day supply of coal on hand and numerous hospitals in the country have only what they "can scrounge." It said 10,000 hospital patients were endangered.

Refugees reported that the reorganized security police under the Kadar government were carrying out mass arrests of workers' council members, despite protests and spontaneous strikes by workers in factories where the raids were made.

Murder 80 Civilians

Accounts reaching Belgrade said the Hungarian countryside had been swept by outbursts of partisan warfare in the past two days. They described Budapest itself as relatively calm but said the city was encircled by a steel ring of Soviet armor and guns. The Belgrade reports said strong units of well-organized guerrilla fighters were operating in many parts of Hungary, with some of the strongest groups in the area surrounding the Yugoslav-Hungarian border.

Fighting of major proportions also was reported in and around Dunapentele, one of Hungary's chief steel-producing centers. Tension was heightened by the slaying of 80 unarmed civilian demonstrators by Hungarian police at the mining town of Salgotarjan, in northern Hungary.

Sylvania which had always been a haven for the oppressed there would be no need fair employment practices laws. But the laws he said, there were many employers who themselves wanted to be fair in their employment practices but were fearful that their employees would resent such practices, or were fearful of public opinion. With a law on the books they could do what they wanted to do without fear of public censure.

Protects Both Parties

"Actually the law in Pennsylvania protects the employer as well as the employee because not only does it forbid the employer from practicing discrimination, but it also forbids the employee from penalizing the employer who is following the law."

"We have made it a policy to proceed by persuasion, using the law and its penalties as a last resort, and it has paid off over the years."

"Fair employment practices in regard to the Negro, the Jew and the other minority groups came into effect to a large extent during World War II when the great shortage of manpower forced the issue and many industrialists found that fair employment practices paid off in the business world."

President John Hostetter presided at the meeting. A collection among the members yielded $60 to provide a Christmas party for the children at the Adams County Day Care Training Center. Any money left over will be used to provide Christmas toys for some of the youngsters at the center who might not receive them otherwise.

John Hewetson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hewetson, Gettysburg, R. D., was introduced as the new Gettysburg High School member of Rotary. Each month a different high school student is named as a "member" of the club to meet with the club during the month.

HUGE LOAN TO BRITISH MAY CLEAR THE AIR

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) — The loan of $1,300,000,000 to Britain by the International Monetary Fund last night may clear the Washington air for a while, at least. It was getting confused toward the end of last week.

Britain had suffered economic damage from her joint attack with France on Egypt. For one thing, the invasion cost money. For another, oil supplies from the Middle East were shut off when the Suez Canal was blocked.

The United States is going to make up a part of the oil loss by shipping oil from here. Nevertheless, Britain showed she still was in an economic squeeze by asking this country to waive nearly $2 million dollars in interest on previous debts.

In U.S. Interest

Keeping the British economy healthy is in the interest of the United States. A collapse in Britain would be felt around the world, particularly in Western Europe.

Last Thursday some high authorities in the government were talking of increased aid to Britain, not as big as the Marshall plan, but nevertheless sizable. But the talk was vague.

On Thursday night Vice President Nixon touched on the same subject in a New York speech although he too was vague when he said:

"I believe it is in our interest as well as theirs (the British) in this hour of difficulty, and I am confident that there will be strong bipartisan support in Congress for granting such assistance."

For Administration

It seemed unlikely Nixon would talk like that unless he knew he was stating administration thinking.

As if to make it official, James C. Hagerty, President Eisenhower's press secretary, said that while Eisenhower didn't see the Nixon speech beforehand, "the vice president knows the policies of the President."

So administration thinking seemed to be in the direction of fresh aid for Britain, to be voted by Congress. But on Saturday night Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey appeared to throw cold water on this notion.

Speaking in New York, he said:

Exaggerated Figures

"Some of the estimates for financial support have been greatly exaggerated. The fact is that in all probability existing institutions will be able to provide most of the assistance that may be needed."

The "existing institutions" Humphrey had in mind must have included the International Monetary Fund, established in 1947. The United States, Britain and a batch of other countries are members.

Help For British

Each contributes a share of the money which makes up the fund from which a needy member can get a loan, as Britain did last night. The British will have to pay interest on the money, besides paying back the principal.

But the fund is an international organization. Congress has nothing to do with the loans it makes. So Humphrey was right, at least up to now.

Maybe by the time Congress comes back in January Britain will need more money. If so, the Eisenhower administration will then have to ask Congress to help the British.

The Mayflower, which brought the Pilgrims to this country in 1620, was dismantled in England in 1629.

New Zealand (area 103,410 square miles) has a population of 1,940,700. This is less than the city of Los Angeles.

JOHNNY DIO'S TRIAL DELAYED UNTIL SPRING

NEW YORK (AP)—Trial of Gohmy Dio, who the government contends masterminded the acid-blinding of labor writer Victor Riesel, has been postponed until next spring. Selection of a jury was to begin today.

Federal Judge William B. Herlands yesterday ordered adjournment of the trial until April 24

over bitter objections of defense counsel on the court's own motion for adjournment. Herlands said the four-month delay was necessary for Dio and three others to get a fair trial. The judge said he wanted public emotions to simmer down.

The government took no position on adjournment.

Surprise To All

Herlands' ruling, which came at a pretrial hearing, surprised both defense and prosecution counsel.

Riesel, whose column is syndicated nationally, was permanently blinded by a thug who threw acid in his face outside a Broadway restaurant April 5. Three other men were given prison sentences last week as conspirators.

The government charges the attack on Riesel was aimed at intimidating him in connection with a racket investigation into the garment and trucking industry.

Dio Runs To Attorney

Dio, whose real name is John Dioguardi, jumped up and ran over to talk to his attorney, William Kleinman, when Herlands made his announcement of adjournment.

The others accused with Dio, 41, of Point Lookout, N. Y., are Theodore (Teddy Ray) Rig, Charles Tuso and Charles Salvatore Carlino.

Abe Telvi, the man the government says threw the acid at Riesel, was found shot dead, gangland style, on the lower East Side last July 28.

Kleinman charged that the prosecution would appreciate a delay in the trial to give it time to "work" on the three Dio codefendants—Gondolfo Maranti, Leo Telvi and Domenico Bando — convicted before Herlands last week.

Kleinman said the government had hoped to turn Maranti and Bando into prosecution witnesses once they were convicted.

OIL INDUSTRY MAY DRILL OFF SITES IN LAKE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The nation's oil industry may begin drilling off shore oil sites in Lake Erie in an effort to develop new sources of Pennsylvania crude.

Two signs point to increased activity in off-shore prospecting in the lake:

1. Gov. Leader has promised to seek backing of the 1957 Legislature to guarantee conservation of resources under the lake and to insure the state's claim to the area.

2. Geologic surveys indicate "good possibilities" of oil being found in the region off the Pennsylvania coast.

Another indication is the fact that Canada has 21 producing oil wells on the north side of the lake off Ontario. In addition there are reports that Ohio is seeking legislative action to insure its hold on its off shore waters.

First In Nation
Pennsylvania currently ranks first in the nation in oil imports and fourth in refining capacity. The state's native production is in great demand because of its lubricating qualities.

The Forests and Waters Department emphasized proposed legislation would guarantee protection to lake rights of way for ships and the lake fishing industry.

On oil prospects, Carlyle Gray, chief of the State Geologic Survey, declared there are "gaps in the trend of drilling along the southern shore of Lake Erie" where the lake cuts into the pattern.

In other words, geologic patterns under the earth continue far out under the floor of the lake, but drillers have not yet gone after the resources because of the water.

Nearer Surface

In fact, Gray said the geologic strata at which oil is found inside Pennsylvania converge toward the lake so that the actual level of possible deposits is nearer the surface of the lake than to the land of the commonwealth.

Robert C. Barwick, chief of the division of minerals of the Forests and Waters Department, said there is "no question" the commonwealth has full claim to off shore rights in the lake.

The region which Pennsylvania can claim extends the orders of the Erie "neck" of the commonwealth to the Canadian border somewhere in the middle of the lake—a region of about 1,200 square miles.

However, Barwick said the area currently comes under the jurisdiction of the State Property and Supplies Department because it is listed as surplus property.

Any proposed legislation, he said, would have to transfer ad-

The verbal attack came despite endorsement of the Soviet line by Palmiro Togliatti, the tough party secretary who has headed Italy's two million Communist party members for years.

Antonio Giolitti, a Communist member of the Chamber of Deputies, spoke out for the critics. He said Soviet intervention in Hungary "cannot be reconciled with the principles of socialism."

"In Hungary and in Poland," he said, "the party was not defended by the comrades who kept silent, but by those who have spoken."

ministration of the region to the Forests and Waters Department. This is because the Property and Supplies Department may issue only a one-year lease, while the other department is set up to administer leases of unlimited range.

Ice Problem

Gray said the chief problem in drilling for off-shore oil in Lake Erie would be ice, not storms.

"Anything above water in the lake would present a problem when winter freezes set in," he noted. He added that such a problem is not a deterrent to oil prospectors.

In explaining the geology of the possible oil deposits, Gray said the most likely sources may be the so-called Medina layer which is some 2,200 feet below the surface of the Erie area, but possibly closer to the surface farther out in the lake.

"There is a good possibility of Medina production in the lake," he added.

Harrisburg wearing a Scotch cap and a long military cloak.

The chimerical garb of a Scotch cap and military cloak alleged to have been worn by Lincoln can be traced to a New York Times reporter named Joseph Howard Jr. who confessed that he evolved the story from "the mysterious depths of his journalistic imagination." Howard was a prominent Republican of Brooklyn and a member of Henry Ward Beecher's church, having served that divine as private secretary.

He was a press representative aboard the Lincoln inaugural train when it left Springfield and he first heard of the Baltimore plot from a detective named Burns, whose brother, Howard recalled, was at one time the proprietor of the Pierpont House in Brooklyn.

The detective locked Howard's hotel door and held him a prisoner in his room until morning so that no releases could reach the newspapers until the following day. This same treatment was accorded all the newspaper reporters that made up the inaugural party. Burns evidently told Howard the full details of the plot thinking all the while that he could not release the story and at the same time relying on Howard's promise not to use the information.

Being informed that Mr. Lincoln had already left by a special engine and car and that the plot had failed, Howard began to prepare a story despite the fact that he was detained and that the telegraph wires had been cut to New York. He began his dispatch: "Abraham Lincoln, president-elect of the United States, is safe in the city of Washington." Then he proceeded to give all the details as they were unfolded to him by the detective.

Burns made the statement to Howard "that no one would recognize Mr. Lincoln at sight." However, it was later revealed that traveling "incognito" consisted largely of concealing Lincoln's identity on the train. Any one who knew Lincoln would not have failed to recognize him as he traveled to Washington.

Lincoln's wearing apparel

was described by different parties who were with him at some time when he made his unscheduled trip. One man remembered that he wore "an overcoat thrown loosely over his shoulders without his arms being in the sleeves, and a black Kossuth hat." Another observer recalled that he wore "a soft low-crowned hat, a muffler around his neck, and a short bob-tailed overcoat." One other witness said that Lincoln wore a "slouch hat and a cloak, the same one that he had worn from Springfield, and was fastened in front near the neck like many that were worn at that time. . . ." Lincoln informed Benson J. Lossing, the historian, that he wore "an overcoat he had brought with him from Springfield; and that garment was topped, not by a Scotch cap, but by a soft wool hat which he found in the box holding the new beaver hat given him a few days before by a New York friend."

Howard, recalling the incident years later (The Burlington, Vermont Free Press, Friday, November 21, 1884) stated: "I asked myself what possible disguise could Lincoln get in Harrisburg, and, as I wrote on, I imagined him in a Scotch cap, which would be about as marked an opposite to his high silk hat as one could conceive, and a military cloak, which I borrowed, in my imagination, from the shapely shoulders of Col. Sumner, who was traveling with the president-elect."

Howard sent his dispatch early the next morning and it was received by the Times office just as the day editor reached his desk. Upon reading the story the editor got out an extra immediately. Shortly thereafter, a thousand newsboys sold papers to startled New York citizens featuring the astounding revelation of the diabolical plot. Needless to state, the Scotch cap and military cloak immediately became fixed in people's minds as Lincoln's disguise when he traveled "incognito" through Baltimore.

Thomas Nast, a reliable pictorial news artist, was a member of the presidential party after the train left New York. He was assigned to draw sketches for the Illustrated News and his drawing of Lincoln at the Camden Station in Baltimore was accurate. However, it was altered in the editorial rooms of the paper to conform to Howard's dispatch of the Scotch cap and military cloak.

Vanity Fair in its issue of March 9, 1861, published a cartoon entitled "The New President — A Fugitive Sketch" which chided Lincoln on his midnight journey to Washington in outlandish garb. The same issue of that magazine had a cartoon entitled "The Mad Lincoln, Harrisburg Highland Fling." Harper's Weekly in its March 9, 1861, issue published a cartoon depicting "The Flight of Abraham" and a cartoon "The Passage Through Baltimore" by Adalbert Volk was distributed privately in March 1861 as one of a series of Lincoln caricatures. Other caricatures dealing with the unfortunate incident made their appearance designed largely to embarrass Lincoln and his administration.

Apparently the Scotch cap and military cloak story caught the people's imagination so completely that Howard was never reprimanded for his "journalistic imagination." Devoid of any journalistic ethics, Howard, who was later with the Brooklyn Eagle, embarrassed the President in 1884 when he drafted a "Bogus Proclamation" with forged signatures of Abraham Lincoln and William H. Seward which was published by the New York World and the New York Journal of Commerce. The New York Herald published the proclamation but after discovering that the Times and the Tribune were not publishing it, the editor had the 25,000 copies already run off destroyed.

The so-called proclamation was dated May 18 and, among other things, called for 400,000 men between the ages of 18 and 45 years to suppress the rebellion. Further on in the proclamation the statement was made that if any state failed to furnish its quota by June 15, the same should be raised by a peremptory draft.

Immediately there was a sharp repudiation of the document and an order was signed by Lincoln calling for the arrest and imprisonment of "the editors, proprietors and publishers" of the offending papers. Their property was also ordered seized. However, after an investigation and with the arrest of Howard and Mallison, who prepared the bogus copy on manifesting paper, the presidential orders were rescinded. Both men confessed. Howard wanted to manipulate the stock market and gold did move upward from five to 10 per cent. Howard was released from Fort Lafayette prison on August 24 through intercession of Henry Ward Beecher. Mallison remained in prison about a year.

Once the offending newspapers resumed operation, they were quick to condemn the Lincoln administration for its suppression of the freedom of the press and the kotty question of state and federal rights were involved. President Lincoln bore the brunt of the attack and his opponent made the most of the situation for political purposes.

Manton Marble, editor of the World, writing at white heat, excoriated Lincoln: "It is you that in transaction stand accused before the people. It is you who are conspicuously guilty. It is upon you that history, when recording these events, will affix the crime of a disregard of your duty. . . . The people are soon to pass upon your claims to re-election and the right of impeachment yet remains to their representatives."

Devoid of any journalistic ethics, Howard, who was later with the Brooklyn Eagle, embarrassed the President in 1864 when he drafted a "Bogus Proclamation" with forged signatures of Abraham Lincoln and William H. Seward which was published by the New York World and the New York Journal of Commerce.

The New York Herald published the proclamation but after discovering that the Times and the Tribune were not publishing it, the editor had the 25,000 copies already run off destroyed.

The so-called proclamation was dated May 18 and, among other things, called for 400,000 men between the ages of 18 and 45 years to suppress the rebellion. Further on in the proclamation the statement was made that if any state failed to furnish its quota by June 15, the same should be raised by a peremptory draft.

Immediately there was a sharp repudiation of the document and an order was signed by Lincoln calling for the arrest and imprisonment of "the editors, proprietors and publishers" of the offending papers. Their property was also ordered seized. However, after an investigation and with the arrest of Howard and Mallison, who prepared the bogus copy on manifold paper, the presidential orders were rescinded. Both men confessed. Howard wanted to manipulate the stock market and gold did move upward from five to 10 per cent. Howard was released from Fort Lafayette prison on August 24 through intercession of Henry Ward Beecher. Mallison remained in prison about a year.

Once the offending newspapers resumed operation, they were quick to condemn the Lincoln administration for its suppression of the freedom of the press and the kotty question of state and federal rights were involved. President Lincoln bore the brunt of the attack and his opponent made the most of the situation for political purposes.

Manton Marble, editor of the World, writing at white heat, excoriated Lincoln: "It is you that in transaction stand accused before the people. It is you who are conspicuously guilty. It is upon you that history, when recording these events, will affix the crime of a disregard of your duty. . . . The people are soon to pass upon your claims to re-election and the right of impeachment yet remains to their representatives."

Howard sent his dispatch early the next morning and it was received by the Times office just as the day editor reached his desk. Upon reading the story the editor got out an extra immediately. Shortly thereafter, a thousand newsboys sold papers to startled New York citizens featuring the astounding revelation of the diabolical plot. Needless to state, the Scotch cap and military cloak immediately became fixed in people's minds as Lincoln's disguise when he traveled "incognito" through Baltimore.

Thomas Nast, a reliable pictorial news artist, was a member of the presidential party after the train left New York. He was assigned to draw sketches for the Illustrated News and his drawing of Lincoln at the Camden Station in Baltimore was accurate. However, it was altered in the editorial rooms of the paper to conform to Howard's dispatch of the Scotch cap and military cloak.

Vanity Fair in its issue of March 9, 1861, published a cartoon entitled "The New President — A Fugitive Sketch" which chided Lincoln on his midnight journey to Washington in outlandish garb. The same issue of that magazine had a cartoon entitled "The Mad Lincoln, Harrisburg Highland Fling." Harper's Weekly in its March 9, 1861, issue published a cartoon depicting "The Flight of Abraham" and a cartoon "The Passage Through Baltimore" by Adalbert Volck was distributed privately in March 1861 as one of a series of Lincoln caricatures. Other caricatures dealing with the unfortunate incident made their appearance designed largely to embarrass Lincoln and his administration.

Apparently the Scotch cap and military cloak story caught the people's imagination so completely that Howard was never reprimanded for his "journalistic imagination." During a brief business session the Lions voted to hold a minstrel show in 1957 but left the date and other arrangements in the hands of a committee headed by David C. Blosser. Proceeds of the show go into the Charity Fund. Tentative dates under consideration are late February or early May in the high school auditorium.

$10 To Dystrophy Fund
Harry D. Ridinger reported Vice President Donald Ullrich's team leading in the fruit cake sale for the charity fund. Final returns were asked by next Monday when the Lions will be hosts to their sons and daughters at the Shelter House for the annual Christmas party.

The Lions voted to increase their quarterly dues from $15 to $16, effective January 1. Early in 1957 the club will be divided into six teams for an attendance contest with stakes promised the winners at the end of the four weeks.

The clubmen also voted $10 to the firemen's collection for the muscular dystrophy fund.

Hear Bob Davies
Henry T. Bream, member of the club and athletic director at Gettysburg College, introduced Bob Davies, former pro basketball player with the Rochester Royals and now in his second year of basketball coaching at Gettysburg College, who talked on "Basketball." Describing the game as the "most difficult of all sports," he said he hopes "in another year or two to have a top notch basketball squad at Gettysburg College." The present squad that has lost four straight includes two juniors and 11 sophomores.

A meeting of the board of directors followed the club session.

Waives Hearing In

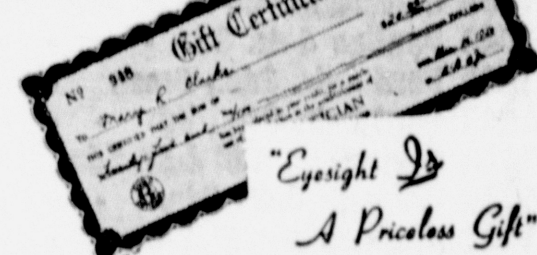

Mt. Holly Springs
Charles Moore, 50, Aspers R. 1, waived a preliminary hearing following his arrest Saturday night at Mt. Holly Springs on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

The charge was filed before Justice of the Peace Luther Peterson, Mt. Holly Springs, by Police Chief Frank Stoerzinger. Moore was arrested after his car struck a guard rail along Route 34 in Mt. Holly Springs, Peterson said.

MAIL HANDLING IN LARGE FIRMS HUGE PROBLEM

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Coping with the increasing flood of mail in and out of business firms and with the ubiquitous office memo taxes the ingenuity of many managements today.

Sometimes it seems an airmail letter can travel across the country in less time than it takes an office memo to reach another office on the floor below.

Mechanical devices to speed delivery and collections, new methods of sorting on the run, intricate machines for weighing and stamping and figuring foreign postage—all are being tried in the fight to dig a way out of the growth in mountain of paper work under which today's business is increasingly being smothered.

Chain Links

An endless chain links all floors from the 12th to 30th in the new Socony Mobil Oil Building in midtown New York. Automatically it ejects mail and picks up returning letters, packages and memos, and in turn leaves them on the floor where they belong.

The longest time element involved is seven minutes. The system handles an average of 2½ tons of paper and cardboard a day.

Conveyor belts speed mail through 13 floors of the Mutual Life Insurance Building on Broadway. The company knows it answers 20,000 letters a month, but doesn't count mail needing no reply (for example, premium payments) or the stacks of interoffice correspondence.

Have Attendants

Attendants on each floor take the mail baskets, sort the incoming for the various divisions on that floor, and send back inter-office paper work for other floors, or outgoing letters for the mail room, where 15 persons handle the flood. There are one to three attendants on each floor, depending on the traffic in paper there.

3 Cypriots Shot By EOKA Gunmen

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—EOKA gunmen shot three Greek Cypriots to death last night. Two were killed as they talked with friends in villages near Famagusta and Larnaca. The third was slain as he slept in his home at Frenaros.

EOKA, the Cypriot underground organization seeking union of this British island with Greece, has described similar slayings of its countrymen in the past as retribution for collaboration with the British authorities.

LONG LINE

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—The California Department of Fish and Game and the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service are cooperating in an experimental planting of New England Cherry stone clams in California waters.
